$3.7 Billion Foreign Aid Bill Gets Senate's Okay; Additional Cut Defeated

Saxbe Seeks Early Ruling In SUB Cases

Wednesday Deadline Asked for Filing of Briefs in Ohio Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court has been asked to make June 11 the deadline for filing briefs in suppmemental unemployment (SUB) cases.

The motion was made Friday by Atty. Gen. William Saxbe after a 40-minute informal conference with three judges and opposing counsel. Saxbe also asked that the court hold a hearing on the merits of the SUB issue at its earliest convenience.

Must Precede Decision

The hearing must precede a court decision on the two cases brought by the Steelworkers Union against four steel companies and James R. Tichenor, administrator of the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation. Saxbe is counsel for Tichenor.

Saxbe urged the speed-up because the high court usually takes its summer vacation in July, not returning until September. Gov C. William O'Neill has indicated he is waiting for the court to act before he sets the date for a special session of the Legislature, which he says will be before June 30.

Saxbe and counsel for the union and steel firms have said they plan to refile briefs they used in earlier SUB proceedings and can file immediately, but attorneys for intervening defendants say they could use the full 40 days allowed by court rules for filing new briefs.

Will Abide by Decision

They have, however, stated that they will abide by any court decision on a shorter filing period.

Besides Judge Weygandt, Judges James G. Stewart and James F. Bell took part in the conference. Assistants with Saxbe were Huntington Carlisle, John W. Hardwick and Eugene R. Everhart.

Attorneys representing steel firms are Frank C. Manak of Cleveland, David E. Jones and William T. Swanton, both of Youngstown. Union attorneys are Herschel Kriger of Canton, Robert Murphy of Youngstown and David E. Feller of Washington.

NAMED TO AEC. John A. McCone, 56, has been appointed to succeed Lewis L. Strauss as an AEC member, but not necessarily as chairman. McCone, a west coast businessman, has held several administrative posts in the past. (UPI Telephoto)

Senators To Pass on McCone

AEC's New Head Faces Sharp Quiz

WASHINGTON (AP)—John A. McCone faces a wide ranging inquiry into his views on atomic policies and his business connections before the Senate acts on his nomination to the Atomic Energy Commission.

President Eisenhower Friday appointed McCone, a Los Angeles business man, to succeed Lewis L. Strauss as an AEC member. Strauss is stepping out June 30 as chairman of the AEC.

Gets Nod as Chairman

Sens. William F. Knowland (R-Calif) and Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM), members of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, said in separate interviews they understand McCone will be named chairman of the commission if his nomination is confirmed.

Anderson added, however, he does not expect McCone to have the same broad duties as Strauss, who also served as President Eisenhower's atomic adviser.

Strauss, a controversial figure, will become the President's special assistant in charge of promoting the atoms-for-peace program after his current five year term expires at the end of this month.

Reaction Favorable

Reaction was uniformly favorable among senators who will pass on McCone's nomination. But several senators said they want to explore McCone's views on atomic power, the halting of nuclear tests, the sharing of nuclear secrets with other countries, production of plutonium and other matters.

McCone, who was in Potsdam, N.Y., to receive an honorary degree Sunday from Clarkson College, declined Friday night to discuss his views with newsmen. He said questions on basic atomic policy would have to be answered before senators considering his nomination.

McCone, who served as undersecretary of the Air Force in the Truman Administration, was listed by the White House as a Republican.

Tokyo Police Hold Crowley 2 More Days

TOKYO (AP) — Tokyo District Court today authorized police to hold Joseph P. Crowley for two more days on suspicion of fatally beating T. A. D. Jones Jr.

The extension gives the Tokyo prosecutor's office until Monday to decide whether to indict Crowley, a former Yale football star from Milwaukee.

Jones, head of a New Haven, Conn., fuel oil company and a brother-in-law of Crowley, was found dead of injuries May 8 in a Tokyo hotel suite he shared with Crowley and Frederick M. Kissinger. The three came to Japan May 5 to buy an oil tank ship.

Judge Shoichi Hinohara granted the extension after the prosecutor's office asked for three more days for the full 20 days that a person can be held without charge in Japan. The judge gave no explanation of his cutting the request to two days.

In asking for more time, the prosecutor's office said: "Some points in the case still remain to be cleared up." He would not elaborate.

Bowling Alley Blast Routs 75

Medical Offices Above Center Are Evacuated

CLEVELAND (AP)—More than 75 persons were evacuated from the Madison Square Medical Building near the busy Madison-Hillard Road intersection in Lakewood Saturday after an explosion rocked the building.

The blast, apparently caused by the explosion of lacquer being used to refinish bowling lanes, was followed by fire.

The second and third floors of the building houses offices of 24 physicians and surgeons. The first floor is occupied by stores and the bowling alleys.

The refinishing work was being done beneath the alleys.

No serious injuries were reported.

Walter Lutey, son of Ralph Lutey owner of the alleys, said there was "an explosion and a flash of fire. We got out of there fast."

Cabinet Acts On De Gaulle Algeria Plan

Moves To Implement Pacifying Program, Crackdown Endorsed

PARIS (AP)—Premier Charles de Gaulle's Cabinet moved quickly today to put his pacifying program for Algeria into effect and endorsed his crackdown on the insurgent junta in Algiers. The ministers agreed an Algerian Moslem should be brought into the cabinet for the first time.

They decided to call city elections in Algeria in about a month. This will be the first test of De Gaulle's formula of equal votes for Moslems and Frenchmen in the territory.

Referendum Date Set

The Cabinet set Oct. 5 as the tentative date for a referendum throughout France and Algeria on constitutional reforms De Gaulle will draft to strengthen the hand of the executive.

The Cabinet heard De Gaulle report on his dramatic three day trip to Algeria, where he unfolded his plan to placate Algerian nationalist rebels and cut off the powers of the French civilian-military junta that had rebelled against Paris.

De Gaulle told his Cabinet that the army in Algeria, which fully supported the May 13 insurrection against Paris, is completely faithful to the government.

Okays Appointment

The Cabinet stamped approval on De Gaulle's appointment of Gen. Raoul Salan, French troop commander in Algeria, as his official representative.

The Cabinet announced Salan will have at his side a high ranking civilian aide with the rank of secretary general. The name of the secretary general was not revealed nor were his duties listed.

However, the appointment was an obvious move to weaken the military rulers in the junta that took over in Algiers May 13 and demanded De Gaulle's return to power.

The Cabinet lost no time approving De Gaulle's plan of complete integration of the nine million Arabs and Berbers of Algeria with the million Frenchmen there.

Andre Malraux, De Gaulle's spokesman, said De Gaulle had returned from Algeria convinced the Moslems have accepted De Gaulle as a guarantee they would get full equality. Algerian nationalist leaders in Egypt and Tunisia, however, have rejected his plan and announced they will continue their 3½-year fight for independence.

Will Go on Radio

De Gaulle will go on the national radio, probably next Saturday, to report to the French people on his trip to Algeria.

Malraux said De Gaulle feels it is very important to get the local elections under way quickly in Algeria. The elections will fill the posts of mayor, town councils, and other local administrative posts. Although no specific date

Raid Algerian Port

BONE, Algeria (AP)— A band of Algerian rebels staged a hit-and-run raid on this eastern port city today, some 36 hours after Premier Charles de Gaulle addressed a crowd in its central square.

A band of unknown size shot its way into the southeastern part of the city with automatic weapons shortly after midnight. At least three policemen were wounded.

VETERAN PASTOR HONORED. The Very Rev. William J. Spickerman, pastor of St. Mary Catholic Church, today received a scroll from Pope Pius XII commemorating the Marion church head's 50th year as a priest. The scroll, which notes a special apostolic blessing has been given in his honor, is presented by Anthony D'Amato, chairman of a Catholic committee planning a celebration in honor of the Rev. Fr. Spickerman's golden jubilee. A proclamation setting aside next week as "Father Spickerman Week" was presented by Mayor Wendell L. Strong. Highlight of the week will be a public reception at Marion Catholic High School Saturday, June 14, a special 5 p.m. mass the next day at which Bishop Clarence Issenmann, bishop of the Columbus diocese, will be in attendance, and a dinner at the UAW Union Hall later that evening at which Bishop Issenmann will be the speaker.

Ike's Request Trimmed by $229 Million

Total Is $110 Million Over House Version; Joint Conference Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has approved a $3,712,900,000 foreign aid program after beating back efforts to trim the total and to ban any further assistance to Communist Poland and Yugoslavia.

The big measure authorizing continued military and economic help to free nations was passed by the Senate 51-17 at the end of a session that lasted until nearly midnight. On final passage, 26 Republicans and 25 Democrats voted for the bill while 8 Republicans and 9 Democrats opposed it.

The Senate approved the total recommended by its Foreign Relations Committee, that had cut President Eisenhower's request by 229 million dollars. The House version, passed earlier, is 110 million dollars smaller than the Senate total.

Goes to Conference

The bill now goes to a Senate-House conference to reconcile differences.

The aid program faces its next big test when the appropriations committees begin drafting the bill to provide the actual funds. The authorization bill passed Friday night sets ceilings for the program in the fiscal year starting July 1. Most foreign aid supporters concede the appropriations committees will cut the total below the authorization figure.

The Senate didn't cut a nickel from the $3,068,900,000 in new authorizations recommended by its Foreign Relations Committee, despite the efforts of Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-Ala). Another 644 millions was authorized at the last session for the coming fiscal year.

Ellender did succeed, by a 43-28 roll call vote, in getting the Senate to adopt one amendment putting a ceiling of 1.6 billion dollars on military assistance abroad.

Eisenhower had asked 1.8 billion dollars for military aid. Under the language in the bill, he can shift the 200 million dollars to defense support for nations with which the United States has defense agreements. Defense support is economic aid to help allied nations maintain adequate military forces.

Ceiling Unchanged

Adoption of Ellender's amendment did not change the over-all ceiling of 2.4 billion dollars on military aid and defense upports.

In recommending that ceiling, the Foreign Relations Committee gave Eisenhower a choice of splitting a 235 million dollar cut between the two items. Thus, the Ellender amendment means that defense supports would have to take only a 35-million-dollar cut from a ceiling of 835 million.

Woman Killed In Morrow by Shotgun Blast

Husband Held; Says He Only Sought To Scare Her After Tiff

MOUNT GILEAD — A 58-year-old Morrow County woman was slain by a shotgun blast Friday night in the kitchen of her farm home southeast of Fulton.

Morrow County Sheriff Frank Giffin said he is holding the woman's husband, Joe Pinder, 54, on an open charge pending further investigation. Dr. Frank Sweeney, Morrow County coroner, viewed the body today and ruled the shooting was a homicide.

Sheriff Giffin said Pinder told him he had argued with his wife and attempted to scare her with his 16-gauge shotgun. The sheriff quoted Pinder as saying he didn't know the gun was loaded and that

Date Moved Up

Marion Mental Health Clinic To Open Tuesday

Date for opening of the Marion Mental Health Clinic was set for Tuesday, June 10, when the board of directors of the Marion County Mental Health Clinic Association met Friday night.

In other business a clerk-stenographer was employed and three persons were named to fill vacated posts on the board. Mrs. Harold H. Case was named to the secretarial position.

Edward B. Lewis, psychologist at the Marion Correctional Institution, was elected first vice president of the association to assume the post vacated by the Rev. W. L. Stafford who is leaving Marion.

—:—

SELECTED TO take the Rev. Mr. Stafford's place on the board of directors as well as that of Charles Clark, also leaving Marion, were Mrs. Herbert Petrich and Felix Reber.

Dr. R. R. Williams, association president, said today that two members of the clinic staff remain to be named. They are a psychiatric social worker and a psychologist.

Since only the director of the clinic, Dr. Theodor Bonstedt, and a secretary are now on the job, initial operations will be limited, Dr. Williams said.

The clinic headquarters, set up temporarily at 130½ S. Main St., will be open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Patients should be referred primarily by a family doctor or by a local welfare agency, Dr. Williams noted.

He said that many cases indicate need for psychiatric help, but actually should have medical treatment. For this reason, the clinic staff prefers referrals from a physician who has diagnosed the case and found that mental assistance is definitely what the patient needs.

—:—

IN THESE CASES the doctor is expected to make the contact with the clinic, he said.

Patients will be charged on a sliding scale, based on their ability to pay, the president added.

Decision to open the clinic ahead of the original July 1 date, was made after Dr. Bonstedt reported to the board Friday night that operations already are well organized.

It was felt that since the clinic could render a valuable service to the community by openings its doors as soon as possible, operations will begin now, even though they will be on a limited scale until the other two staff members are procured, Dr. Williams said.

The clinic will be located only temporarily at the S. Main St. address. In a few months operations are expected to be moved to 210½ E. Church St. for permanent headquarters, Dr. Williams explained.

Earns $20,000 a Year

Youth Failure in School But Big Hit in Business

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — John Graves cut too many chemistry classes as a high school senior last year and couldn't graduate.

It made him mad.

The 18-year-old went to work selling encyclopedias. In less than a year he's jumped to an assistant vice president of the P. F. Collier & Son Corp.

His pay this year before taxes: $20,000.

"The whole thing was a matter of principle," Graves said.

His father, Dr. Allen W. Graves dean of the school of religious education at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary here, said his boy "was a rather individualistic sort of person."

Here's the way young Graves achieved his modern-day Horatio Alger story:

After failing to graduate from high school, he began looking for a job. The encyclopedia company hired him. In six weeks he was a field manager with five other salesmen under him.

In six months Graves was made a regional trainer, directing salesmen in five states.

Then last December he was named an assistant vice-president of the company, the youngest executive in its history.

About his $20,000 salary, Graves said:

"That's more than my father makes with three doctor's degrees."

The boy's selling prowess isn't all that's attracted attention. He stood up to the Louisville mayor, city consultant and safety director last year when his 1936-model jalopy was towed off private property.

Graves won out — and police towed the car back.

Dr. Graves said he is encouraging his son to finish high school and enter college. The father added:

"It isn't what you make but what you make of yourself that counts."

Five Arrested In Police Raid

2 Men, 3 Women Held On Vice Charge Here

Two men and three women, including three Marionites, were arrested by a police vice squad in a raid Friday night at 690 Hocking St.

The squad, with Capt. Virgil Campbell and Marion Tatham in charge, made the foray at 9:56 p.m. at the Hocking St. address and arrested Herman Jones, 56, on a charge of being the keeper of a house of ill fame.

Charged with frequenting the house for purposes of prostitution were Larissa Davis, 24, of 218 Senate St., Ida Rembert, 22, of Mansfield, and Loretta Davis, 26, also of Mansfield.

Wilbur Rowland, 34, of 396 W Center St., was charged with being a visitor in a house of prostitution.

The raid was made after a period of surveillance by vice squad members.

Rebels Have B29s

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Indonesian air force authorities said today that rebels based in north Celebes are now supported by four B29 bombers based somewhere outside Indonesia.

The officials refused to speculate where the World War II U.S. heavy bombers might be based but said the Jakarta government controls the only airfields in Indonesia large enough for them.

Macmillan Arrives

British Prime Minister In U.S. for Conferences

WASHINGTON (AP)—British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan arrived today from London for conferences with President Eisenhower and speechmaking visits to two colleges.

Macmillan, met at National Airport by Secretary of State Dulles, stressed that his visit to the United States is an informal one.

"The chief purpose," he said, "is to make a pilgrimage to my mother's state, Indiana."

Macmillan will speak in that state Sunday at DePauw University.

The Prime Minister and his wife arrived in a New Britannia propjet airliner only nine minutes after Dulles had seen President Theodor Heuss of West Germany off on a tour of the United States. Heuss had just concluded a three-day state visit.

The White House said the British Prime Minister and Eisenhower will not meet before Monday afternoon, when they start three days of informal conferences.

After leaving Washington Wednesday, Macmillan also will confer with Canada's Prime Minister John Diefenbaker in Ottawa.

Red View of Talks

MOSCOW (AP) — Izvestia today accused British and U. S. "ruling" circles of masking the real purpose of British Prime Minister Macmillan's current visit to the United States.

Resolution Prepared

Question of Underpasses To Be Studied in Council

A resolution declaring the city's intention to build railroad underpasses on N. State and N. Prospect streets when funds become available will be considered Monday night by Marion City Council.

It is one of 17 pieces of legislation to be acted on by the city legislators.

The underpass resolution was ordered prepared by council at its last meeting on a motion by Richard Lister (R-at-large).

State highway department spokesmen have informed the city that it is doubtful if the federal bureau of public roads would approve a proposed one-way street plan here unless the city also intended eventually to build the underpasses.

A resolution adopted previously by council called for state cooperation in setting up the one-way streets without the underpasses. The proposed one-way street plan was to follow the recommendations of the Browne, Roberts and Associates arterial highway plan except for the underpasses.

Other legislation to be considered by council Monday night is as follows:

An ordinance to accept a plat of the Leslie E. Adams 4th Subdivision to the city.

An ordinance to establish a fee for inspecting septic tank cleaning trucks at the sewage treatment plant.

An ordinance establishing a fire lane on the north side of E. Mark St. from Main St. to State St. and on east side of N. Prospect St. from Silver St. to W. Fairground St.

An ordinance approving the action of the board of governors of Marion General Hospital in purchasing an X-ray tube costing more than $1,000.

An ordinance to appropriate funds within the hospital equipment repair fund.

An ordinance authorizing the city solicitor to settle a claim of

Religion at Work

By EUGENE CARR

A New Revelation

On at least two occasions since last October, I have suggested in these columns that we would do well to prepare ourselves for a surprise as to what actually exists on other planets, once we have been successful in making a complete break-through in our exploration of outer space.

My interest in this speculation is in the religious significance involved. I have held this interest for some time, and the launching of the first global satellite last fall added materially to it.

I could not possibly depend on scientific knowledge as the basis for this thinking; I have no such knowledge; I am not a scientist.

However, it is gratifying to read recent statements on this subject by two of America's most eminent scientists.

-:-

DR. JASON J. NASSAU, professor of astronomy at Case Institute of Technology in Cleveland, is quoted as saying, "we must get over the idea that life as we know it is unique to earth. There is high probability that one billion planets exist in the universe with conditions similar to here. We have nothing to brag about."

Dr. Harlow Shapley, retired director of Harvard College Observatory, likewise supports this contention. He says there are at least a hundred million planetary systems suitable for life in the universe, many of which are likely to be inhabited by living, thinking beings equal or superior to man in capabilities.

Dr. Shapley calls these new discoveries "ego - shrinking revelations," and suggests that human beings as we know them may be surpassed in intellectual achievements on other planets.

THE POINT IS, we may find out some day that we are not nearly so advanced as a civilization as we think we are. We may discover, as Dr. Nassau says, that we have nothing to brag about.

We may learn, as Dr. Shapley implies, that there are living, thinking beings out there in the universe who are superior in every way to our brand of humanity.

Why not? Did not God create the entire universe, not just the small bit of it we know?

Is it known for sure that He made man to inhabit this earth alone? Or, isn't it feasible that He placed man on other planets as well, perhaps millions of years before He got around to the earth and its developments?

These are questions well worth thoughtful consideration right now. To accept them as possible, to try to understand them as probable, might very well be the basis for the next great revelation of God's handiwork.

It could furnish the proof so many have been wanting and waiting for.

Faith for Anxious People

A Sermonette

By REV. ASHLEY BOOTH
Pastor of Central Christian Church

". . . Do not be anxious about your life."—Matt. 6:25

There are many signposts that countless men are unhappy about being men. Dr. John Schindler says: Whenever one has such a thick, inpenetrable layer of C.D.T. (cares, difficulties, troubles) that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets psychosomatic illness." Medical men are saying that much illness is actually a rebellion against some part of life.

We have learned well the art of wringing our hands. Our generation surpasses all others in its search for security and yet feels desperately insecure. We cover our real problem and have become known as "the aspirin generation." Our "age of anxiety" caused W. H. Auden to dedicate a volume of poetry to "the age of anguish."

The great claim of the Gospel of Jesus Christ for our generation is that our faith has something to say to anxious people.

CHRISTIAN FAITH speaks to those anxious about death. While there are some who stoutly stand by the political implications of the German philosopher, Nietsche, in his notion of the superman, time appears to be by-passing this dated notion. But there are untold numbers of people who have arrived at the same personal conclusion that Nietsche determined for himself about the relative importance of life. One day as he walked through a cemetery, he became overwhelmed by the transitory nature of life, and that death was the final and all compelling force in the universe. For us today, as medical science increases life expectancy, the average human becomes more fretful about the fact of ultimate physical death.

The Christian faith has a word for such an anxiety. We learn that there is a spark of the life of God in each man, and, if fanned into an open flame will become an eternal light. Jesus Christ gives us a skylight through whom we may glimpse the eternal life, and in His disciples we see that in some degree it has been attained.

Willa Cather gives at least a part of the Christian answer to death in her book "Death Comes for the Archbishop." Bernard objects to Father Latour's returning to Santa Fe to die. Bernard says, "I will go at once, Father. But you should not be discouraged: one does not die of a cold." The old man smiled, "I shall not die of a cold, my son. I shall die of having lived."

Christian faith speaks to those whose life is without meaning. Dr. James Gordon Gilkey was impressed by the work on the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge. A gang of 36 men were engaged in painting the girders. Becauase the bridge is so long, by the time the men have finished at one end the paint is worn off at the other end. They merely start over again.

WE HAVE ATTAINED great heights in material production in this country, and the end is likely not here. But with the assembly lines and automation, we have allowed man to lose his pride in his work. It is still true that man does not live by bread alone, and he needs something the words that come from his Creator.

Such is the purpose of the Gospel message. We are children of God and are dependent upon Him. Only God can give His kingdom upon the earth, but God will not give it unless we allow ourselves to be used for his purposes. Despite all our clamor to be more free through less work, none of us will begin to live truly until we have submerged ourselves in a cause which makes everlasting demands upon us. If what we are asked to do is of a passing matter, the emptiness returns. But to be captured by a vision of a heavenly kingdom on earth will cast out the demon of futility.

Christian faith offers relief from our guilt. In the course of the centuries Christian faith has created a conscience on many things—slavery, family obligations, war and peace, manner of earning a livelihood. When a person gets out of bounds he is aware of a sense of guilt. There are many expressions of guilt feeling. Some become censorious. They put blinders on their own errors to see only the wrongs of their fellows. Some develop what is known as "drive" and establish reputations for good works; they would compensate for their sins. Still others want to lord it over others, and the list might go on.

THE QUESTON is not whether or how often a person may sin, but whether one can find acceptance and forgiveness. Dr. George Buttrick has pointed out that an overwhelming sense of guilt comes not merely from failing to see that God has forgiven, but our failure to forgive ourselves: "God does not want us to remember what he has been willing to forget."

Christian faith will not, with some magic wave of the wand, remove all problems. But the Christian faith contains the necessary ingredients for mental and spiritual health. The Christian message is still that Christ has a word for those who are anxious and fretful and afraid.

Confident Living

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

How To Precondition Your Life

One Sunday, some time ago, I had one of my busiest days. By nightfall I had preached four sermons, attended a luncheon, shaken hands with innumerable people, and felt that tired but healthy sensation that comes to a man who has done a real day's work.

Vincent Peale

But, unfortunately, I could not go home to bed. After that last sermon I had to catch a train to a town in upstate New York where I was to deliver a lecture the following day.

Actually I went to sleep in the bus going over to the Erie Railroad terminal in Hoboken, N.J. I found my train, and at the door of the Pullman car a porter was waiting. "How are you?" he asked pleasantly. "All set for a good night's sleep?"

"Sure am," I replied. "I've slept all the way over in the bus."

"Guess you're a real relaxer," he grinned.

HE SHOWED ME to my compartment. It was the first one inside the door and right over the wheels.

"This is your bedroom," the porter said. "Sorry it's over the wheels, but look at that nice bed. Besides this roadbed is so smooth you'll sleep like a baby." He was a real positive thinker, that man.

I saw that everything was in order, the bed already made up. It was smooth and snowy white; it was immaculate and there wasn't a wrinkle in it. Right then and there I decided I was going to have a good sleep. "That's a wonderful bed," I said. "Brother, you sure know how to make a bed. I'm going to have a fine night's sleep."

"Sure you are," he said. "You have got your mind made up." And with that he bade me good night and I went to bed, though not without a sleepy sort of pondering of his parting remark.

I USUALLY wake up before 7 in the morning. This time I slept until 9:15. I had some sense of guilt about this, but felt wonderfully rested and said to the porter when I went to the dining car for breakfast, "I had the most wonderful night's sleep. I really ought to ride on your train every night. I could really sleep then."

"Well," he told me, "you certainly slept better than the man in the next compartment. He got on last night after you did and he was mumbling and grumbling. He said he couldn't sleep over the wheels (and his room was farther from the wheels than yours), and he didn't like the looks of the bed, and he couldn't sleep on trains anyway. And when he got up this morning, he told me he didn't sleep. Of course he didn't! He got what he expected. That man," the porter concluded, "preconditioned his night's sleeplessness."

There is a wisdom packed remark. There can be no doubt that you may mentally precondition what life is going to do to you and what you are going to do with life. An ancient philosopher once wrote: "The mind is the master of all fortune. In it is the cause of either misery or happiness." And whether you or I have misery or happiness very largely depends upon how we think. For by our thinking we do precondition our lives.

"BE YE TRANSFORMED by the renewing of your mind," the Bible tells us. This is the basic secret of preconditioning: change comes through renewal of your thought pattern. Thoughts are dynamic and creative thoughts change conditions. If habitually you have defeatist thoughts, hate thoughts, greed thoughts, you will condition your life for misery. If you cultivate victorious thoughts, loving thoughts, generous thoughts, you will condition your life for happiness. Your life can actually be transformed by the renewing of your mind; by the reconditioning of your pattern of thought.

I suggested once to a friend that he try thinking healthy thoughts for just one week and stated my belief that it would do wonders for him. He gave it a try, a real effort. He did not do it perfectly. How could he when he had practiced destructive thought habits for so long.

But even with an imperfect score, at the end of a week he reported with enthusiasm that he "wouldn't have believed the difference it made." It must have impressed him profoundly, for he readjusted his life on this basis with good results.

A Milestone...

The diploma, symbol of work accomplished, is one of the graduate's most cherished possessions. It signifies a milestone in life—an end, but also a beginning!

With commencement comes thoughts of life still to be lived. Knowledge alone is not enough; degrees are not enough. There must be something more.

Through the Church comes a knowledge of life lived for others, of nearness to God, of strength and power which carries one beyond the needs of the present, which makes the individual adequate for tasks too great for human strength.

In the Church you will feel a nearness to God you never felt before, and the more fully you enter into the life of the Church, the stronger you will become.

Why not have a commencement of your own now—a commencement of life in the Church?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Truck Plunges Through Span Near Hepburn

Driver of Rig Unhurt As Tile-Laden Outfit Falls Into Scioto River

KENTON — A 35-year-old Findlay truck driver escaped injury Friday when his tile-laden tractor-trailer rig collapsed a bridge about two miles southeast of Hepburn and plunged 12 feet into the Scioto River.

Driver Richard Saum told authorities here that the bridge collapsed just as his cab had reached the south side on County Rd. 239. The two trailers, loaded with about 23 tons of four-inch tile, pulled the cab backwards as they crashed through the steel suspension bridge.

A heavy steel beam slammed into the back of the cab, but Saum crawled out of the wreckage with only minor cuts and bruises.

He was hauling the tile from the Hancock Tile and Brick Co. in Findlay to the F. and A. Ballenstine farm in Dudley Township.

Saum said he saw the five-ton load limit sign on the bridge but had no room in which to turn his rig around and decided to chance crossing the structure.

No charges have been filed against Saum. County Engineer Harold Remsburg said the 60-year-old bridge is a complete loss and will be closed for most of the summer while a new span is built.

County Road Supt. Mac Anstine said the bridge is covered by insurance but predicted the county would only receive about $1,500 or $2,000 because of depreciation. No estimate of damage to the bridge or to the tandem trailer rig and its load had been made this morning.

The engineer's department worked late yesterday clearing the wreckage. The second trailer was being pulled from the river this morning.

2 Men, Woman Sought In Theft at Galion Store

GALION — Two unidentified men and an unidentified woman are suspects in a Thursday noon hour $200 theft at Decker's Gift Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Decker, owners and operators of the gift shop located at 219 Harding Way East, told police that two men and a woman entered the shop during the noon-hour rush and while one man kept them busy at the front of the store, placing a deposit on one item and making a couple of small purchases, the other two meandered toward the rear of the store.

After the customers were gone, they said, they discovered $200 missing from an unlocked safe at the rear of the shop.

Three persons, bearing the same description, were seen in another Galion store and were connected with a red automobile, bearing New York license plates and parked in front of the post office.

Why Ohio Has Standards

State Highway Chief Charles M. Noble, at a news conference in Canton, had an opportunity to get across to the citizens of Ohio why he wants high standards of design for Ohio's new interstate freeways and why he favors the present policy of purchasing rights of way.

The U.S. Bureau of Public Road, which pays 90 per cent of the cost of interstate freeways, agrees with Mr. Noble's standards and so does the General Accounting Office, whose job is to approve payments. But unfortunately some Ohioans have criticized the standards as being too extravagant. In reality, the reverse is true.

Mr. Noble's thesis is that safety and preparations for future expansion are not extravagant. To boot, he says, shallower curves and grades can be built just as cheaply as steep ones when a highway traverses the plains portions of Ohio.

THE BUREAU OF Public Roads has adopted what it calls minimum standards for the freeways. It specifies that grades must be only so steep and curves only so sharp. Mr. Noble emphasizes that these criteria are just what they say — minimum. They do not mean that better, safer roads should not be built where they can be built. Uncle Sam agrees with him on that, and so do we.

Wide medial strips, for example, are the only deterrent engineers have been able to find against head-on collisions which generally are fatal. Mr. Noble cannot understand, nor can we, why anyone would want to narrow the medial strips and increase the hazards of head-ons.

Ohio's highways should be built as safe as possible and for the future. Land should be available for adding more lanes when they are called for.

Mr. Noble's ideas on aquisition of property are based on experience in other states. California uses Ohio's present system, and its experience has been that only 2 per cent of the property owners feel they must go to court to get a fair price. Fewer than 10 per cent of the property owners in Ohio are going to court.

THE DAYS OF HORSE TRADING are gone. No longer do Ohio's appraisers offer a ridiculously low figure, then work up from there. Appraisers now figure the present value of the property they need, add to it any damages the owner might suffer, and make a final offer right off the bat.

Here's how Mr. Noble phrases it:

"If we offer $10,000 and the owner says he'll settle for $10,300 without going to court, we can't fairly offer the extra $300. If we did so, we would be unfair to the more than 90 per cent of the property owners who accept our offers as fair."

The highway chief admits his department is at fault in not having been able to sift down to all the appraisers the polish of the new policy. He is trying to remedy that.

Not every negotiator is as patient as he should be. If an owner rejects the state's offer and protests that a fair evaluation has not been made, Mr. Noble wants the negotiator to listen, determine whether he has missed an item of damage and perhaps even review his figure. It is not the state's policy to leave the impression that each of its offers is a "take-it-or-leave-it" figure.

Mr. Noble is right on all counts. He was successful in giving New Jersey one of the nation's finest highway systems. He aims to do the same thing for Ohio. The Buckeye State is fortunate to have him on its team.

Not Quite All Is Forgiven

Ohioans can cover up most of the shortcomings of their bad weather by extolling the beauties of June, which are self-evident and need no press agentry. But they are extolled, because they make such a fine talking point.

Not quite all is forgiven when the Ohio landscape becomes an endless blur of melding shades of green, decorated with bold, blue, crimson, white and pink. A native who bears the scars of honorable service in the climate that produces all this as midsummer comes a-hastening cannot forget his sinuses.

He runs across his heavy-weather footwear while searching for his peekaboo shoes when the temperature moderates. He stumbles over his snow shovel while looking for the lost ball from the croquet set.

The tire chains he hung up in the garage fall down while he is getting out the long-disused lawn furniture and the hammock that goes under the apple tree. He finds the latest of a long succession of fuel bills cheek to jowl with the bill for the new air-conditioner.

When he rallies his strength to install the screens, he must deal first with the storm windows, which hardly seem worth the effort of removing, because they will be needed again so soon. And when his newly sharpened lawnmower crunches into a fistful of misplaced rocks, he remembers how the rocks got there — when the snowplow gouged out a passageway in his driveway.

The sunburn lotion stands next to the cough syrup in the medicine cabinet. The summer hat that is fine for gardening is crushed beneath the cold-weather headgear that is indispensable for braving gales and tempests.

June is indescribably lovely when it happens. But to keep the record straight, one June does not make a climate year, not even when added to July, August and the good part of September. The rest is indescribably bad, with occasional exceptions — and in the winter and spring just past the exceptions were too occasional to be worth mentioning.

Ohio Law Is for Everybody

The Ohio Supreme Court will review the issue raised by the ruling of the state bureau of unemployment compensation that supplemental unemployment benefits are remuneration and therefore cannot be paid concurrently with unemployment compensation.

While the decision is awaited, it can only be hoped that Ohioans will try to understand what the issue is and why it cannot be put aside for the sake of Ohioans who would like to draw SUB payments they are entitled to under agreements with employers willing to pay them.

The issue is whether or not one group of employes who made agreements with employers to collect SUB are entitled to draw a special kind of payment that other employes cannot draw, if SUB payments are a form of remuneration as they have been ruled to be by the bureau of unemployment compensation.

Other employes, if they are drawing unemployment compensation, must subtract from their compensation all remuneration they receive. The Ohio Supreme Court thus must determine whether or not SUB is remuneration. If it is, there can be no distinction between kinds of remuneration.

The Ohio law is for everybody and must be interpreted the same way for everybody. As long as the question of what constitutes remuneration as far as SUB is concerned remains unsettled, it remains unsettled for all Ohioans who are interested in equity under the law.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Everybody's proposing marriage to Elfrida von Nardroff, winner of $237,500 on a quiz show, so here goes:

Dear Elfrida: I have been following you on TV. I felt attracted to you at $50,000. At $100,000 my heart pounded. When you got to $150,000 I knew you were all I could ask for as a wife, a mother and economic security.

The night you passed $200,000 I thought of Juliet, Cleopaira, Marguerite, Hetty Green, the Rockefeller Foundation, Lady Guinivere and the Federal Reserve.

Then when you ran your winnings to $237,500 I went all to pieces emotionally and knew it would be hard to live without you, taxes and all.

YOUR EYES BECAME "the fairest stars of heaven." They were deep pools of beauty, genuine upper bracket pools. I gazed into them and saw charm, loveliness and an end of the recession, not to mention new horizons of prosperity and the broader life.

And, Elfrida, such lips, such cheeks, such financial independence! I do not tell this to all the girls. My girl friends have lacked brains. (What is worse they have lacked money.)

Make me happy, Elfrida. I know no woman who could mean so much to me in these days of financial uncertainty, unemployment, declining car loadings, etc. We could know a wonderful domestic life at 5 per cent on 200 grand.

OH, MY DARLING, be my encyclopedia! How I would like leading you to the altar and hear you promise to love, honor and come up with the right answers! What joy to take you for better or for at least another tie!

Elfrida, I say in the words of Romeo "But, soft! What light through yonder window breaks? It is Fort Knox and Juliet has it won."

Be mine and end my iron deficiency. Love and kisses. Please quit now while you're ahead, as I am awful nervous. Do not let the income tax bite come between us, my love. Joe.

MUCH CRITICISM of de Gaulle as obstinate and difficult is based on his refusal to go along meekly with F.D.R. and Churchill after the war. But, looking at the shape the world is in today as a result of decisions, do they look so smart?

Leonard Hall, exhead of GOP National Committee, will run for 'guvnor' of New York. (Things must be getting tough all over.)

Sir Louis Sterling, one of Britain's richest men and famed philanthropist, knighted by the king, was born on the lower East Side, deep in New York's slums. He went to London in his youth, with $24 in cash, to sell gramaphones and became one of the top men in England's financial world. Another case of an underprivileged boy who managed to stand privation without getting "all mixed up."

Walter Reuther is in a situation where he wishes his windshield wiper were working better so he could see what's ahead.

MAN AND THE AUTO

What does an auto do to man?
It breeds a type anew:
The driver's wheel can make of him
A stinker through and through.
He is a Dr. Jekyll kind,
But steps into a car
And—presto—he is Mr. Hyde
Who can be smelt afar.

Power of Faith

By Howard Brodie

NAZARETH, ISRAEL—The Nazareth where Jesus grew up was a small, out of the way place, by any standards. The word Nazareth means "guardplace," an apt title since it probably was nothing more than an outpost of Japhia, the fortified town several miles to the west. The people tilled the rugged limestone hillsides and made a simple living at various trades. But to a small boy growing up Nazareth had its charms and fascinations.

For Jesus there were the long, happy days spent with His family, perhaps helping Joseph in his carpenter's shop or drawing water for His mother Mary. Occasionally a camel caravan, en route to Sepphoris, passed through, stirring up the mystery and excitement of a faraway world. Here, in these simple surroundings, the boy Jesus nurtured the faith that was one day soon to shake that world with its power of love.

Penalized for Loyalty

By David Lawrence

Larue I. Berfield works in a factory of the Sylvania Electric Corporation at Emporium, Penns. He has worked for the same company for 19 years but is about to lose his job through no fault of his own and through no desire of his employer to fire him. He spent four years in the armed forces — first with the Fifth Air Force overseas and then 28 months in the Southwest Pacific.

Lawrence

But Mr. Berfield is in serious trouble. He has the "misfortune" of being a white citizen and not a Communist sympathizer.

Otherwise he and his children would be getting the protection of several of the so-called "civil liberties" organizations which usually raise defense funds or appear in court in behalf of persons in "civil rights" cases or those who plead the Fifth Amendment or the right of free speech under the First Amendment.

Mr. Berfield, exercising his right of petition, went to Congress to tell his story.

The reason he is about to be deprived of his job is because he doesn't believe in Communism and is unwilling to join those who he believes are its exponents in this country.

The plant where he works is engaged in defense work and makes certain articles that are "classified," though it appears they have something to do with making improved radar equipment for the ballistic missile's early warning system.

AFTER AN ELECTION among the employes, Mr. Berfield told the Senate subcommittee on internal security the other day, a union was certified on May 16 as bargaining agent for all employes. It is known as the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America and was expelled by the CIO from its organization eight years ago on the ground of "Communist domination."

Now since the union has obtained from the employer a contract providing for what is termed the union shop under existing federal law, the employer is required to dismiss anyone who after 30 days does not become a member of the union.

Mr. Berfield, therefore, has until June 16 to make up his mind whether to join the union or lose his employment.

He doesn't want to give up his job but if he doesn't, he will have to stultify himself by disavowing, in effect, the two loyalty oaths he has taken — one to a Civil Defense organization and one to a local school board.

He has pledged that he is not identified with any Communist organization.

Mr. Berfield told the committee that he could not in good conscience join the union because he would not be upholding his loyalty oaths to the fullest extent. He wrote a letter to the Senate subcommittee which said, in part:

"From reports of investigations by the U.S. Government, it has been found that the U.E. is Communist dominated and controlled. I would like to know if a person can be forced to join such an organization in order to keep their employment?"

HERE IS WHAT the CIO said in its formal resolution expelling the UE from its organization:

"We can no longer tolerate within the family of the CIO the Communist party masquerading as a labor union.

"The time has come when the CIO must strip the mask from these false leaders whose only purpose is to deceive and betray the workers. So long as the agents of the Communist party in the labor movement enjoy the benefits of affiliation within the CIO, they will continue to carry on this betrayal under the protection of the good name of the CIO."

Under recent Supreme Court decisions, when a union is certified as bargaining agent it cannot lose its rights because it is Communist dominated.

Indeed there is a hint in the court rulings that the individual has a constitutional "right of free association" with Communists so long as he isn't caught participating in any overt acts of revolution against our government.

But there seems to have been no clear-cut case in which protection is afforded to a man who wants to maintain his beliefs and who refuses at the same time to join a Communist dominated union.

The case points up the tyrannical power of the so-called union shop, which is a synonym for labor union monopoly.

Even the American Civil Liberties Union, which is active in protecting a Negro worker who has been discriminated against by a railway labor union, speaks of the exclusive bargaining rights of unions nowadays as "comparable in scope to certain types of common law monopolies" and, approvingly, describes the power of a labor union today as "clearly that of an economic legislature endowed by the government."

It adds that "the similarity of union and governmental action is inescapable."

But, it may be asked, if unions have become a system of government, why shouldn't they be subject to the Bill of Rights under the constituion?

Why should Mr. Berfield pay the penalty of losing his means of livelihood just because of his beliefs?

THE SENATE subcommittee chairman, Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) has rightly promised to study the case and recommend remedial legislation. Meanwhile Mr. Berfield can only appeal to the courts to protect his job.

One wonders what organizations take care of individual workers who have that kind of a legal problem to finance — especially when the victim is a white man and also is not a Communist sympathizer.

People Always Right?

By Raymond Moley

The Republican party on the east side of Manhattan north of 96th St. is shadowy, nondescript, and impotent. There are, by authority of law, assembly district leaders and clubs, which close up on election day. Defeat is taken as a way of life.

A few crumbs of patronage come through labyrinthine channels when New York State has a Republican governor or attorney general or when there is a Republican president. Minute drops come from a few Republican Supreme Court judges. And Tammany cares enough for the maintenance of a shadow Republican party there to provide some patronage from its own rich stores.

WHEN A candidate braves the hopeless task of running for certain defeat for Congress or the city council, bits of money are distributed up there. These payments as a rule are cash on the barrel head and no questions asked.

This alleged Republican party in that area has little or no responsibility and apparently no shame.

It seems to see nothing amiss in accepting as a candidate Adam Clayton Powell Jr, a refugee from the Democratic party who is under indictment, who still refuses to accept the Republican party as the one he would support in Congress, who has been castigated by the NAACP as a man who has invoked extreme racism as a reason for his prosecution and who also has made a threat of physical violence in case the Tammany leader or the borough president should walk "up and down the streets of Harlem."

SINCE THE goddess of reason has no temples in the realm of politics, it does not seem inconsistent to those Republicans that Powell will also run in the Democratic primary.

There is also no sense in the patent fact that Powell protested when Tammany cast him out because he was a Republican in his habit of assuming the banner of the Republican party when the occasion offers.

What moves the feeble Republican organization in Harlem to this strange choice is that Powell has certain values as a candidate. He has a well-known name.

He also is the pastor, money-raiser, spiritual guide and inspired prophet of the immense Abyssinian church in that area.

Thus he may be elected, if he is not convicted before November. The Department of Justice may take plenty of time in trying the indictment.

And so lo and behold! The prophet may be knocking at the door of Congress, with his legal credentials and the label of Republican. In that case, there is little the House can do but accept him as a sovereign representative of the people. And the people are always right—or are they?

Letters to The Star

Says Federal Employes Deserve Raise

To the Star: In answer to the views expressed in the June 4, 1958 editorial regarding pay increases for Federal employes:

First, as a civil service employe, I resent the thought that nothing is being done to increase productivity. We at the Marion Engineer Depot feel strongly that the taxpayer is entitled to the most we can give him for his tax dollar. We pay taxes, too, you know. Various programs are active continuously to put into practice money - saving procedures. These programs are in effect in all phases of civil service. At the Marion Engineer Depot alone, hundreds of suggestions have been made by the employes on how to cut costs over the last few years. Many of these suggestions were adopted and save the government money every day.

Second, as an officer in the American Federation of Government Employes, I disagree strongly with the idea that there is no need for a wage increase for classified employes.

Third, a very high percentage of these people work in positions vital to our defense, in fact, quite probably our very lives. Yet many of them, in these important jobs, receive little more than the wages paid laborers. In many cases these classified office workers receive less than laborers.

Fourth, because federal employes must keep their financial commitments above reproach, many of them find it necessary for other members of their families to work, so they can afford to work for the government.

Fifth, if there is no concern over filling government rosters, just keep them working for starvation wages, and then where will we be? We will have to spend money teaching people to replace them, for they will work long enough to learn their jobs, and then find that they can do better on the outside. Then someone else will have to be taaught the job. This gets to be a costly procedure. Over 11,000 people quit the federal government in February, 1958. Let's pay these people that already know their jobs fair wages and keep them where they are needed.

Sixth, so long as international conditions remain as they are, it will be necessary to keep a large number of people on the government payroll, and it will be expensive. It's up to all of us to save where we can, but the living standard of government employes is not the place.

Seventh, I assure you a 10 per cent increase will not put anyone in the bucks. The only thing wrong with the raise is that it's about half enough, and two years late. To cut it down would be unfair; and to veto it would be stupid.

"Man does not live by bread alone." Duet. 8:3. We have deeper hungers. No one can long find complete happiness in material things. More Registrants Needed for Initial Day Camp Period

The first YMCA Day Camp period may have to be canceled, Beryl Johnson, YMCA youth secretary, announced this morning.

At present, he said, there are insufficient registrations for the first period, which is scheduled June 23 to July 3.

Mr. Johnson said that this is the first time in the last seven years that the first day camp period has not been filled to overflowing long before the registeration deadline.

The quota for each day camp period is 45 boys and girls, ages 7 through 12. All parents intending to register their children in the first period are urged to do so at once.

The YMCA day camp committee will meet next week to determine the advisability of continuing the first period with the present limited registration, Mr. Johnson said.

Cost for the two-week camping period is $17 for YMCA members and $20 for non-members. The camp day begins at 9 a.m. and ends at 4:30 p.m.

This type of camp program is considered a valuable experience for boys and girls, offering swimming instructions, education trips, nature lore and fellowship.

YMCA bus transports the campers to the Mount Gilead State Park camp site and back home each day.

Kirkham Asks Forgiveness

Slayer of Two in Holdup Dies on Gallows in Utah

POINT OF THE MOUNTAIN, Utah (AP)—Holdup killer Barton Kay Kirkham died on the gallows at dawn today. His last words were a plea for foregiveness.

"I've asked God to forgive me," Sheriff George Beckstead quoted Kirkham as saying.

Through two years of imprisonment, Kirkham had insisted he had no remorse for killing two persons in a grocery store holdup and that he was unmoved by religion.

Kirkham, 21, calmly took 25 steps up a ramp to the gallows. The hangman, at a signal from Sheriff Beckstead, pulled an iron lever, dropping Kirkham six feet through a trap door into the canvas covered lower section of the gallows.

The time was precisely the official hour of dawn.

Dr. W. C. Knott, prison physician, pronounced Kirkham dead at 5:11 a. m.

Kirkham maintained his calm attitude to the end.

The hangman quickly fitted the noose around Kirkham's neck. Sheriff Beckstead leaned over and heard Kirkham's last words.

As the sheriff stepped back, the trap was sprung, the rope snapped taut and then was still.

No members of his family saw the hanging.

Throughout his confinement, Kirkham had carefully built up a reputation as a tough guy who laughed scornfully at the ideas of mercy, remorse and religious salvation.

The rock-hard facade cracked only once — during the last minutes of his final appearance before the state pardons board Wednesday. Then he nervously told the board he would rather spend his life in mental treatment than die by the noose.

Before and after that, he insisted he wanted to die.

Kirkham was the first man hanged in Utah since 1912. He chose the noose over the firing squad because he said it would bring him publicity and inconvenience the state.

He was convicted of the murder in 1956 of grocery clerk David Frame, 50. Kirkham also killed another clerk, Mrs. Ruth Webster, 37, but was not tried for her killing.

Kirkham seemed content through the hours as he waited in the prison's drab auditorium.

He visited with his father and his mother, who was near collapse. Guards said the husky young slayer appeared to warm toward his parents in the final hours, though since his conviction he had been cool, at times hostile, to them.

The young 200-pounder ordered pizza and ice cream sent in for his final dinner and told the puzzled steward who brought it that he selected such a meal "because you get cheese, meat and everything in one meal. Not so much fuss."

CHURCH DISPUTE

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—A dispute between parliament and clergymen of the government-established Swedish Lutheran National Church is boiling toward a climax, with the government favoring a move to allow women to be ordained, and the church synod opposing it. The key question: Can the government override views of the church synod?

Union's Head Doubtful Firm To Shift Plant

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (AP)—The Carborundum Co. may move its largest division away, the company president says, if the Chemical Workers Union rejects contract terms.

The union president, Louis Marino, said the statement was not regarded by the union as a threat.

"The company is just giving us a status statement," Marino said. "There are no serious differences in negotiations yet."

If the union accepts his terms, President Clinton F. Robinson said Carborundum will build a 10-million-dollar plant here to replace the old installation.

His terms include no wage increases except a cost-of-living adjustment.

Robinson said the company is considering Van Wert, Ohio, for the new bonded products division plant. The division normally employs 5,000, but about 1,500 have been laid off.

The company's three-year contract with Local 15-12058 of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers expires July 19.

The union president expressed confidence that there would be no serious trouble in reaching a new agreement.

2 Cincinnati Slayers To Go to Chair July 7

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Robert L. Jackson and Lemuel S. Trotter, convicted slayers of Cincinnati detective Sgt. Walter Hart, will be executed in Ohio Penitentiary's electric chair July 7.

The Ohio Supreme Court set the execution day Friday after the United States Supreme Court last Monday declined to review their trials.

Hart was shot to death during an attempted robbery of the Grey Eagle Cafe in Cincinnati Sept. 19, 1956. Off duty at the time, Hart was shot by Trotter as he tried to prevent the robbery.

An accomplice in the robbery, William Barnett, is in Lima State Hospital.

NAACP Moving to Defense Of Detained Negro Professor

JACKSON, Miss (AP)—The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People today jumped to the defense of Clennon King, a Negro professor ordered to the state mental hospital after his attempt to enroll in the all-white University of Mississippi.

The 37-year-old King, who advocated segregation while a faculty member at the all-Negro Alcorn (Miss.) A&M College, tried to enroll at the university in Oxford Thursday. State highway patrolmen, who had shadowed his every move en route to the campus, whisked him away to an isolated cell in state highway patrol headquarters.

King was taken to the nearby Whitfield Hospital Friday after two physicians at a lunacy hearing recommended he be given psychiatric examination.

In New York, the NAACP, often at odds with King for his segregation stand, said "no question was raised as to Professor King's mentality when he advocated segregation and attacked this association and the Supreme Court of the United States in a series of newspaper articles in Mississippi which was syndicated to many Southern daily papers. . .

"The American code of fair play would be grossly violated by any effort to attach an official Mississippi finding of mental impairment to Professor King's reputation."

King's articles favoring segregation caused a campus-wide student walkout at Alcorn last year. King's writings criticized the NAACP for having done nothing locally for Southern Negroes.

Gov. J. P. Coleman, who ordered troopers to follow King to Oxford, said he refused to leave the campus when told by registrar Robert Ellis his attempt at registration was hopeless.

In an exclusive interview with The Associated Press from his cell Thursday night, King said he wants only to get out.

Ohio's Democrats Plan Bid for Fall Campaign Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Democratic county chairmen have voted to give $4,400 so the party can make a trial run in three counties on plans for raising funds for the fall campaign.

The chairmen, meeting here Friday, agreed to each send $50 to the state headquarters to pay for 100,000 financial aid pamphlets and postage in the three counties. William L. Coleman, state chairman, did not identify the trial counties.

In other action Coleman announced these dates for congressional district campaign meetings:

Seventh, July 8; Fourth, July 9; Sixth, July 14-15; 10th, July 16; 17th, July 23; 15th, July 25; Fifth, July 20; Eighth, July 30; 13th, Aug. 5, and 11th, Aug. 6.

Enoch Allen of Ironton, Lawrence County chairman, was elected chairman of the sub-committee to the party's state central and executive committees.

One of the greatest forest preserves in the Far East is Taiwan's Ta-Hsueh-Shan area on the Big Snow Mountain. It will produce 28 million board feet of lumber yearly.

Kentucky Grand Jury Indicts Four Plain City Youths

PIKEVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Four Plain City, Ohio, youths were indicted Friday by the Pike County grand jury on charges of operating a car without the owner's consent.

They are Donnie Salyer, Lonnie Osborne, William Corbin, all 15, and Robert Lee Castle, 16. Castle was also indicted on a charge of assault with an automobile.

The youths were arrested May 30 after Sgt. Boyd Kiser of the Kentucky State Police said they attempted to run him down at a road block on U.S. 23, four miles north of here. Kiser said he fired at the car and the ricocheting bullet hit Corbin, wounding him.

The road block was set up after a service station operator reported the boys drove away without paying for gas.

*All LESS 10% with "CHARGE IT"

Dear Grant Customer:

June has "busted out" all over, but especially so in your Grant store. We've taken all our summer merchandise and most of our regular lines, too, and marked the prices down to the lowest level ever. You haven't seen values like these in many a year, but now's your opportunity to really take advantage of our loss and just in time for Father's Day, (June 15).

Besides all the sale prices, we are repeating one of our most successful sales — an additional 10% off on all purchases made on June 9, 10, 11, on Grant's Charge-It Plan. Tremendous double savings. This offer holds for all Charge-It purchases whether on a new, a reopened or an added-to Charge-It account.

If you buy Charge-It coupons, here's what this fabulous repeat offer means —

When you take $35 coupon book, you get $38.50 in coupons
When you take $ 50 coupon book, you get $ 55 in coupons
When you take $100 coupon book, you get $110 in coupons
When you take $200 coupon book, you get $220 in coupons

Of course, no matter what denomination book you take, the 10% bonus is added.

If you want just one or two large items, like the famous Grant mowers, fans, lawn furniture or grilles, you receive an automatic 10% discount when you "Charge-It." And once again, this is 10% off the lowest price in town, double savings.

Because of the huge cost involved in this type promotion, we can only run it three days — June 9, 10, 11, remember only on these dates. See you on June 9th when the doors open, be early, we ran a similar sale two years ago and we were mobbed.

Sincerely yours,
Z. H. Isenberg
Store Manager

P. S. If you'd like to eliminate a possible long wait, telephone our credit office and they'll have your book or purchase ready for you.

Care Needed When Buying Home Cooler

Buy your air conditioning as careiully as you woud select a family doctor, choose a new home, or buy a car, warns the Better Business Bureau.

In a nationally circulated booklet, "When You Buy Air Conditioning," the Bureau lists rules to help you make sure your new cooling system will be long-lasting, efficient, and economical. Here are the principal rules:

1. Know the reputation of the person you buy from and the manufacturer of the equipment.
2. Watch out for price cutters. They can't always assure proper installation and service, and may sell you old and little-known equipment for which parts are not available.
3. Choose a reputable contractor who will check your home conditions carefully, work up a system tailored for the house, and stand behind his installation.
4. Make sure electrical wiring is adequate. A good contractor will do this and install any additional wiring necessary.
5. Find out what the guarantee is and who backs it. Unless a reputable firm with adequate repair facilities is in your locality, the guarantee may be worthless.
6. Check in advance on the noise level of the system. A noisy unit can keep you and your neighbors awake. If it's installed outside the house, it can annoy an entire neighborhood.

New Ironing Table Has Curved Shape

For the first time in nearly a century, a change has been made in the shape of the ironing table.

Instead of being symmetrical with the sides roughly parallel, one end pointed and the other blunt, the new ironing table is straight along the working side and curved on the opposite side.

Effect of the curve is to allow the homemaker to iron with a natural swinging motion of her arm. She no longer must hold her elbow in a tiring position up and over the iron to guide it in a straight line. Also, the center of the board is wider than before, making it easier to iron large items such as sheets, shirts, skirts and tablecloths.

Homemakers who have used the new ironing table report their ironing time has been reduced by as much as one-third.

Home Owner Is Liable For Injury on Property

One reason home owners should keep their house and grounds in good repair is that they can be held responsible in case of injuries to visitors on their property, legal experts warn. For example, if the milkman trips on a loose brick in your front steps, you can be held accountable.

A common source of minor injuries to children is a warped or rotted wood hatchway over the steps leading from your basement to the yard. Often these wood hatchways have loose nails which may cause serious injuries to a child.

One way to avoid accidents is to replace the worn-out hatchways with a modern double-leaf steel basement door which is available at building supply dealers. This door will last for the life of your house. It requires the minimum of maintenance and can be installed in about four hours.

Here's How

Knowledge of Disposal Unit Care Is Important

By VIVIAN BROWN
Associated Press Staff Writer

It's a good idea to know that appliance you have a yen to own before you invest in it.

Make sure you have adequate wiring for your collection of large and small electrical units, and space and facilities for other installations you plan.

A waste disposer, for instance, is an easy appliance to operate, but because of its apparent complexities, many questions arise, says Sylvia White, director of consumer relations for one of the world's largest waste disposal manufacturers.

ONE HOUSEWFIE believes she cannot grind up corn husks, while another may attempt to throw an empty bottle down the disposal.

"Both are wrong," says Mrs. White. You can put anything that feels unpleasant to handle in your disposal, except glass and metal. These may cause the unit's grind ring to wear out prematurely, and glass can stick in the sewerage line. But soggy paper napkins, cigarette butts, artichokes, pits, bones and corn husks may be ground up easily. Melon rinds should be cut up first."

It's a good idea to mix food wastes before putting them in the disposal, rather than putting them in separately, she says, as different types of textures rub against each other they tend to liquify more quickly.

LARGE AMOUNTS of waste should be fed in a steady flow so there is room for it to be thrown against the grind ring, a steel file-like object that cuts up foods like a vegetable peeler.

"Most waste disposers hold waste in grind chambers until water is introduced to assure smooth passage into the sewer line. The food particles are carried off in water suspension, one reason why cold tap water should be run until the unit is shut off. Hot water will not do the job properly as it will just melt the grease which will congeal and stick to cold water pipes when it hits them. Disposers need not be cleaned with chemicals, but lingering odors may be removed by putting a tray of ice cubes or a half-lemon into the disposer."

MORE THAN half a million of these disposers were placed in sinks in 1957, says Mrs. White, and some 30 cities require installation of disposers in newly constructed homes.

"Before installing your disposer in an old home," she advises, "have sink drainage pipes thoroughly cleaned. They may be coated with grease, which may be easily removed and kept clean later by the scouring action of the disposal waste."

It's a good idea to read directions carefully, when you buy any appliance, not only to save wear and tear on the object, but to get the best out of it.

Newest Materials Ease Effort of Home Upkeep

Today's home owners have an easier job of maintaining their houses than ever before in history, says a publication for builders. It says that not many years ago, practically everything used in home construction required periodic maintenance to protect it against the weather, and repairs often were needed once a year.

Among modern, long-lasting materials which may need no maintenance for periods of half a dozen years or longer are long-wearing exterior paints; roof and wall shingles made of minerals which never require painting; and steel hatchway covers for the steps from the basement to the yard with durable enamel coatings similar to those on automobiles.

Will Oppose Senator

HELENA, Mont. (AP) — Louis Welch, a $90-a-week copper smelter worker, apparently will oppose Democratic incumbent Mike Mansfield for U. S. Senate in Montana's general election this fall.

Welch, 31, held an 89-vote edge over Mrs. Blance Anderson, 62, for the Republican nomination in final unofficial tabulations from Tuesday's primary. The narrow advantage developed after Welch had trailed by up to 600 votes in early returns.

Boy, 10, Strangles

BRADY, Mont. (AP)—Ten-year-old Tim Cornell Schlepp accidentally hanged himself Friday with a buggy whip.

Pondera County Coroner Ev Wyse said the boy, the whip curled around his neck, was climbing a ladder to a hayloft when he apparently lost his footing. The wooden whip handle jammed in a ladder rung, the whip pulled taut and he strangled.

Blades of Mower Need Adjustment in Summer

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
Associated Press Staff Writer

CHAPPAQUA, N. Y. — As if the sowing and transplanting season were not busy enough for every gardener, lavish spring rainfall has pushed most established lawns into rapid and luxuriant growth. Usually a once-a-week mowing is enough; this season, it is cut to about five days if the man behind the mower doesn't want the job of raking clippings.

Actually, until hot weather sets in, most lawn grasses may be clipped short — one and one-half inches, for instance. But when the rains become less frequent and the sun begins to beat down, it is a wise gardener who adjusts his mower blades higher.

The ideal summer height is two and one-half inches from the ground. This longer grass affords shade and protection to the roots, discourages sun-loving weeds and also helps keep some of the moisture in the ground from drying out.

SPRING RAINS have gotten the garden off to a wonderfully good start. But they have also been enjoyed by the weeds. A lot of the weeds go quietly away under frequent mowing, but others just spread out and slip under the mower blades uncut. Selective weed killers, sprayed on, are effective in handling these — the liquid chemicals stay on the broad leaves of the undesirable weed but roll harmlessly off the narrow-bladed lawn grasses.

I have a farily large lawn area and use, instead of a sprayer, a little plastic cane which I fill with a solution of a 2,4-D solution and treat individual dandelions, plantains, lamb's quarter, dock and thistle. It's a longer job, but it doesn't set back the lawn grasses in any way.

Still other chores to pull the home gardener from the sowing and transplanting activities include spraying and pruning. It has been my experience that regular, early spraying of plants which are particularly attractive to pests—roses, lupine, hollyhock, and phlox are just a sampling—keeps the chewing and sucking bugs from getting a head start.

LAST YEAR, aphids covered the spirea — as well as attacked the plants where I usually expect them — but regular and early spraying with a mixture of a rotenone and nicotine sulphate spray has eliminated them quickly and they have not returned. Roses, of course, attract every passing pest from lice now to beetles later, so a good all-purpose rose spray is a must.

Early blooming shrubs should be pruned as the blossoms fade. Lilacs should have their withering flower heads cut off to assure better bloom next season. The late tulips should receive the same treatment as their earlier blooming sister blooms: have their head snipped off just below the point where seed heads would form, so their strength can go into next year's bloom even now being formed underground.

Perennials in the border will appreciate a feeding of a quick acting fertilizer as a sort of spring tonic — an easy way to apply it is in liquid form. My own favorite method is to distribute the granular fertilizer just before a light cultivation of the soil is undertaken, and thus it is possible to mix the plant food into the soil at the same time young weed seeds are uprooted with my cultivator or hoe.

17 Farm Surveys Made in Crawford Area Soil District

BUCYRUS—Engineering surveys for conservation practices were completed on 17 farms of Divide Soil Conservation District cooperators during April and May, Robert B. Weiss, U.S. Soil Conservation Service technician, reported today in a summary to Luther Shafer, board chairman of the district.

Included were topographic surveys in preparation for systematic tile drainage for Lloyd Volk, Donald Long, Waldo Niese, Gail Crail and topographic surveys for random tile drainage for Harry Nungesser and Edward Tracht.

As - built tile drainage surveys were completed for Dale Harer, Lloyd Kurtz and Clarence Kocher; farm ponds were surveyed for Harbert Harrer and Arthur Leuthold and random tile lines were surveyed for H. A. Pfleiderer and Wilbur Fryreer.

Other activities included: tile drainage systems laid out and construction supervised for Paul Sears, Niese, Park and Herbert Stuckman, Long, James Krauter and Volk; tile mains staked for James Krauter, Niese, Volk, Long, Sears and Harry Stevens; terraces laid out and construction supervised for W. D. and Ross Main.

Writer's Superstition Brings Increase in Prize

DENVER (AP) — Thomas Hornsby Ferril, Denver poet who won the Denver Post's $10,000 playwriting contest, actually collected $10,000.03.

At the check presentation, Ferril explained he was superstitious about the round figure. So Post publisher Palmer Hoyt and two others in the office dug up a penny each to give to Ferril.

Aid for the Ailing House

By ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q: We have a stained glass window on the south side of our church for which we need a transparent covering which will eliminate the glare. Do you have any suggestions?

A: The only possibilities I can suggest are either installing a window shade which can be drawn when the glare is too bright, or possibly having an awning made of one of the translucent plastic materials. This could be placed so that it will cut the glare during the bright part of the day. Personally, I think the shade will be easier and more practical.

Q: I have a dull scratch on my auto windshield caused by the wiper blade. It is not very deep. How can I remove it without putting in a new windshield?

A: I am afraid removing scratches from glass is a difficult process and requires special equipment. If the scratch doesn't affect visibility through the windshield, I'd suggest "putting up" with it.

Q: How can I repair plastic mixing bowls which have been scorched by the heat? Plastic melted away and a hole formed. I can take a piece of plastic from the bowl rim if there were some way of fusing it.

A: Repairing is possible, but replacing the bowls is easier (if not too expensive). To patch, use an epoxy resin adhesive. It comes in two parts: the resin and an activator. Follow label instructions carefully. It is available in hardware stores.

Q: What is the difference between dry walls and plaster walls?

A: Dry walls are generally easier to install than plaster walls; they are less expensive in price and labor. Difference is that "dry-wall" comes in sheets, usually four feet by eight feet; secured by nailing or adhesive. Plaster walls give a seamless, solid surface, applied over lath, either wood or metal. Both types give satisfactory service, and where cost is not the prime governing factor, it is a matter of individual preference as to which is used.

Q: What kind of a finish could I use to make a white pine door resemble yellow pine woodwork? The door has hardly any grain at all. Can a grain effect be achieved to resemble yellow pine?

A: A new paint system, which includes a "graining" tool, may achieve the desired effect. It consists of a base coat, stain and grain coat, and finish coat and is now available at many hardware and paint stores. If the present door has panels, you might consider "modernizing" by covering each side with a sheet of yellow pine plywood, thus making it a flush door.

Q: Would you please explain how to clean vinyl tile?

A: Vinyl, or vinyl asbestos tile, should be swept with a soft broom to remove all loose dirt from the floor. Occasionally the floor should be washed with a mild soap solution, avoiding flooding with water. Rinse with clear water, then dry with a clean cloth or mop. Allow to dry thoroughly, then buff. If a high surface polish is desired, apply a thin coat of a water emulsion wax. The best type of wax to use is one made especially for vinyl tile.

Knowland Prepares To Open Fire on Kennedy's Labor Bill

Californian To Press for Amendment

Measure Modifies Or Repeals Sections Of Taft-Hartley Law

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) said today a labor bill now ready for Senate action would be fully adequate to deal with union abuses.

Kennedy, chief author of the measure, told a reporter he is strongly hopeful the bill could get through the Senate without major amendment. He cited two factors:

1. Support of the bill by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark), chairman of the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee.

2. The 12-1 vote by which the Senate Labor Committee approved the measure Friday.

Would Set Up Code

The bill would set up a union democracy code and would require full public accounting of union financial affairs. It also would modify or repeal parts of the Taft-Hartley law along lines sought by organized labor.

Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland of California said he would fight on the Senate floor for all of his proposed labor control amendments which are not in the bill.

The measure incorporates some of Knowland's proposals, including a requirement for secret ballots in union elections. But many of his most stringent ones are omitted.

The committee plans to send the bill to the floor next Tuesday, meeting a June 10 deadline previously set by Senate leaders.

If finally enacted, the bill would bring about the broadest changes in basic labor law since the Taft-Hartley Act was passed in 1947.

Major Provisions

Major provisions of the bill would:

1. Require complete public reporting of union financial data, of conflict-of-interest transactions by union officers, and of spending by employers on improper anti-union activities. There would be criminal penalties for false reports.

2. Make a secret ballot mandatory for election of local union officers and for national union officers or delegates who elect them at conventions. National union officers would be limited to five-year terms and local officers to terms of four years. Election notices would have to be sent to all union members 15 days in advance of voting.

3. Void a national union trusteeship over a local after 18 months unless the union can show in court why it should be continued.

4. Ban picketing for purposes of extortion from an employer.

5. Prohibit any person convicted of bribery, extortion, robbery, embezzelment, grand larceny or burglary from serving as an officer, director, executive committee member, business agent or paid organizer of a union.

6. Make three Taft-Hartley law changes long sought by unions—repeal the non-Communist affidavit requirement for union officers, permit pre-hire contracts in the building trades, and allow strikers who have been replaced in a shop to vote in a bargaining election.

Starkweather Sentenced to Death in Chair

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Charles Starkweather, 19-year-old killer, who has admitted involvement in 11 slayings, was ordered today to die in the electric chair Dec. 17, 1958.

District Judge Harry Spencer, who presided at the trial of Starkweather for the slaying of Robert Jensen, 17, of Bennet, Neb., fixed the date for the carrying out of the sentence prescribed by the jury which convicted Starkweather after overruling his application for a new trial.

The judge then ordered a transcript of the proceedings delivered to the Nebraska Supreme Court for an automatic review of the case.

The Supreme Court could delay or set aside the execution order.

Starkweather's attorney had listed 17 reasons why they thought a new trial should be granted, the principal ones being that they felt the state had failed to prove Starkweather's sanity and that the guilty verdict and death sentence were the result of "passion and prejudice."

A plea of innocent by reason of insanity had been entered for Starkweather.

Caril Fugate, Starkweather's 14-year-old girl companion on the January killing spree, still awaits trial. She also was charged with first degree murder.

Woman

it discharged after he removed a ramrod from the barrel.

Pinder's wife, Olive, was struck full in the face by the blast and died instantly, the sheriff said.

He said Pinder went to the home of a neighbor to report the shooting and the neighbor telephoned the sheriff's office. The shooting occurred at about 10:30 p.m., Sheriff Giffin said.

The sheriff said Pinder will be held on the open charge until after a coroner's inquest Tuesday afternoon.

The Pinder farm is located about six miles southeast of Fulton in southern Morrow County.

Morrow County Native

Mrs. Olive Elizabeth Pinder was born Oct. 24, 1899, in Morrow County, a daughter of William and Anna Pinder Davis. She was a lifelong resident of the county.

Surviving, besides Pinder, is her mother near Fulton; two children, Mrs. Ada Gibson of Columbus, and Mrs. Faye Brown of Crestline; a sister, Mrs. Ola Brokaw of near Fulton; and a brother, Nelson Davis of Boulder, Colo.

She was an employe of the North Electric Co. in Calion for 14 years.

Funeral services are planned for 2 p.m. Monday in the Craven Funeral Home in Mount Gilead. Burial will be in the Fulton Cemetery. Friends may call in the funeral home Sunday afternoon.

85-Degree Temperature Predicted Here Sunday

Another cool snap kept the mercury from rising higher than 71 Friday, although the skies were clear and a bright sun prevailed all day.

A low of 41 was recorded during the night and the mercury was back to 71 at noon today, en route to a day's expected high of 80.

The weatherman called for fair conditions tonight and Sunday. A low of 52 is foreseen tonight with 85 the anticipated peak reading Sunday.

Marion Area Auto Mishaps

Drivers involved in two of the three county accidents reported by patrolmen of the Marion post today were arrested on charges of failure to yield the right of way.

A Marysville motorist, George E. Henry, 50, faced the charge after his auto collided with another at the intersection of Routes 23 and 47 just south of Waldo at 8:25 a.m. Friday, officers said.

The eastbound Henry car was attempting a left turn from Rt. 47 onto Rt. 23 when it collided with a northbound auto driven by Ruth Rhodes, 32, of Mount Vernon, attempting a left turn onto Rt. 47, patrolmen said.

Minor damage was done to both vehicles, according to the report. Henry will appear in Marion Municipal Court at a later date.

A 79-year-old Cardington man was charged with failure to yield in a second mishap which occurred at the intersection of Routes 98 and 529 five miles east of Marion at 9:45 a.m. Friday.

Patrolmen said the car driven by Homer V. Lowe, 79, was headed west on Rt. 529 when it pulled into the path of a southbound car on Rt. 98 driven by Harold W. Wesley, 23, of Columbus.

According to the report, the Wesley auto swerved to the right side of the highway to avoid a collision and knocked down a route marker and telephone pole. No physical contact was made between the two vehicles, officers said. The Wesley car was considerably damaged.

A lime spreader and a gasoline truck sideswiped on Rt. 529 six miles east of Marion at 2 p.m. Friday at the approach to a narrow bridge, patrolmen reported.

They said both vehicles involved were only slightly damaged. The westbound gasoline truck was driven by Richard A. Shepard, 38, of Mount Gilead and the eastbound lime spreader by James D. Mattix, 21, of Edison.

Parked Car Struck

The sheriff's department investigated a hit-skip accident early today.

A car owned by Bennie Conley of 1069 Uncapher Ave. and parked in front of Fisher's Restaurant on Rt. 30 south, west of Marion, was struck on the right rear fender by an unidentified vehicle.

was set for these elections, Malraux, said the Cabinet wants to hold them in about a month.

The Cabinet also plans to promote mass demonstrations of unity throughout France June 18. This is the anniversary of the famed broadcast which De Gaulle made over the British Broadcasting Corp. network calling on free France to continue the fight after it was overrun by the Germans in 1940.

The Cabinet also decided not to hold any elections in France to fill vacant National Assembly seats before the national referendum on the constitution. About a half dozen Assembly posts are vacant through deaths, but the Assembly is on an enforced vacation, at De Gaulle's insistence.

Ohioan Blasts At Menshikov

Claims Soviet Envoy Should Be Sent Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Michael Feighan (D-Ohio) has renewed his demand that Russian Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov be sent home for what the Ohioan called trying to influence members of Congress.

In a speech prepared for the House, Feighan said Menshikov has appealed to individual members, over the heads of President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles, to support Soviet objectives.

"It is high time that President Eisenhower took immediate steps to declare Ambassador Menshikov persona non grata (undesirable person) so that he will be removed from the American scene."

Feighan noted that Theodor Heuss, president of the Federal Republic of Germany, was to address Congress. In contrast, Feighan said, Menshikov has made a "devious and improper attempt" to persuade congressmen to go along with Russia on such matters as preventing the rearming of Germany.

Red Diplomat Ousted by U.S.

Charged With Trying To Buy Secret Data

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States today ordered the ouster of a Soviet diplomat for paying hundreds of dollars to an American in an effort to buy secret military documents and Army manuals.

Officials said the diplomat failed to get the secret paper but did obtain some Army manuals which had never been secret. The American was not immediately named but the Pentagon said he was not a member of the military or a civilian employe of the armed forces.

The State Department, announcing the action, identified the Russian as Nikolai I. Kurochkin, a third secretary of the Soviet Embassy. It said the embassy had been told to get him out of the United States immediately because he is "personna non grata" (personally unwelcome).

Crane Snags Line, Topples 30 Utility Poles

CHICAGO (AP) — Thirty utility poles toppled to the street like a row of bowling pins along 10 blocks of the South Side Friday after two vehicles snagged a power line.

Five persons were injured, none seriously, and thousands more homeward-bound during the supper hour were delayed by the freak mishap which caused rerouting of traffic in the area.

"It was like the Fourth of July and a tornado combined," said Bert Locke, 38, driver of a semitrailer. "I've never heard such a noise."

The poles were felled, officers said, when a crane snagged a wire and a following semitrailer caught the same wire. The string brought down one pole, and the additional tug felled the rest, one after another.

The poles carried live wires for street lighting, but the current was cut off shortly after the poles toppled. Also carried were wires for trolley car operations, cut off recently when buses replaced streetcars in the area.

The Chicago Transit Authority said foundations for all the poles had been weakened by excavations for a new curbing.

Welfare Clerk Named

UPPER SANDUSKY — The Wyandot County Commissioners Friday announced the appointment of Shirley Bartholomew of Upper Sandusky as clerk-typist for the County Welfare Department.

Rep. Powell Endorsed by Republicans

NEW YORK (AP)—Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-NY) officially was endorsed Friday night to run for re-election on the Republican ticket.

The Negro congressman was approved unanimously by 125 county committeemen of the 16th Congressional District. Powell last week won the support of the majority of GOP Harlem district leaders, in defiance of the wishes of Thomas J. Curran, Republican county chairman.

Later Friday night Powell, in a brief speech before a state convention of Negro Masons, said he was grateful for the GOP endorsement but added:

"I am a Democrat and intend to remain one."

Powell did not elaborate. However, observers have noted that Powell, if he gives up his Democratic Party label, stands to lose seniority rights in Congress.

Powell was ditched by Tammany Hall — Manhattan Democratic organization — because he backed President Eisenhower in 1956. Powell had expressed dissatisfaction with the Democrats' stand on segregation.

The Harlem congressman, who also is a Baptist minister, has been indicted on federal income tax evasion charges. He has pleaded innocent.

Jailed on Nuclear Protest

'Golden Rule' Skipper, 3 Crewmen Are Sentenced

HONOLULU (AP)—The Golden Rule's gray-haired skipper, who sought to protest U. S. nuclear weapons tests by sailing into the mid-Pacific test site, was in jail today with three of his crewmen.

Albert Smith Bigelow, 52-year-old former Navy lieutenant commander from Cos Cob, Conn., drew a 60 day sentence Friday for conspiring to sail the 30 foot ketch into the Eniwetok area despite a federal court injunction. The three crew men had received identical sentences the day before.

Asks Stay of Injunction

A. L. Wirin, Los Angeles attorney, announced in San Francisco he had asked Justice William O. Douglas of the U. S. Supreme Court to stay the injunction forbidding the Golden Rule crew from entering the nuclear test area.

"If Justice Douglas issues this stay, they (the crew) will be free to go to sea," Wirin said.

He said he asked Justice Douglas to hear oral arguments in the case June 17 in Washington, D. C.

Bigelow was arrested a few minutes before a planned sailing time Wednesday. His crew, under another skipper, sailed 4½ hours later, but were overtaken and returned by the Coast Guard.

Others Sentenced

The crewmen previously sentenced were William Huntington, 51, of St. James, Long Island, N. Y.; George Willoughby, 43, Blackwood Terrace, N. J.; and Orion Sherwood, 28, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

All are members of the Society of Friends, except for Sherwood, who is a Methodist. Another member of the crew, not in jail, is James Peck, 43, of New York City, who labels himself non-religious.

The first attempt to sail the ketch to the test area was stopped by the Coast Guard May 1.

Redlegs Bump Giants 5-4, Sail Into First Division

Lynch's Three-Run Homer Provides Cincinnati Win

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Revenge is sweet and the Cincinnati Redlegs are having their fill of it.

Last month, when the Redlegs played host to the transplanted San Francisco Giants for the first time in Crosley Field, the Giants ungraciously beat the Redlegs two straight, 4-2 and 5-4.

So when the Redlegs Manager Birdie Tebbetts and his boys got their first look at the Giants' new home Friday night they aimed to return the favor. For awhile it looked like they would never do it.

Score 5 in 6th

But a five-run sixth inning capped by Jerry Lynch's three-run homer eclipsed a four-run Giant lead and gave the Redlegs their first win over the Giants this season, 5-4.

Their revenge was doubly sweet not only for being unexpected but for preventing the Giants from regaining the National League lead from the Milwaukee Braves while boosting the Redlegs into the first division.

Both teams made seven hits.

But the first five innings belonged to the Giants. The best the Redlegs could do was singles by Don Hoak in the second and Frank Robinson in the fourth and a triple by Gus Bell in the fifth.

The mighty Willie Mays started things off for the Giants with his 14th homer of the season—a clout over the center field screen in the first with one on and two outs.

In the bottom of the third, Don Taussig made it 2-0 for the Giants with his first home run of the year, a solid drive into the left field stands with no one aboard.

Giants Add 2 Runs

The Giants added two runs in the fourth. Mays singled to left, went to second when Ray Jablonski beat out a hit to Roy McMillan and to third after Erlando Cepeda flied out to Robinson. George Crowe dropped Hank Sauers' pop foul for an error and Sauer singled the next pitch scoring Mays and sending Jablonski to third.

Willard Schmidt came in to pitch for Cincinnati and Jablonski scored on Bob Schmidt's sacrifice fly to Bell.

The Giants had a commanding 4-0 lead but then came that Redleg sixth.

With two out, Robinson singled to center. Smoky Burgess and Crowe walked, filling the bases. Hoak singled to center, scoring Robinson and Burgess. Crowe stopped at second and Dee Fondy came in to run for him. The move was unnecessary. Jerry Lynch, the next Redleg batter, homered into the right field stands, scoring Fondy and Hoak ahead of him.

Stu Miller came in to pitch for the Giants and managed to end the rally when Bell flied to Taussig1.

The Giants threatened in their half of the sixth when slippery Willie Mays walked, stole second and went to third on Burgess' low throw. He was left on, however.

In the second game of the four game series tonight, Joe Nuxhall (2-2) will pitch for the Redlegs while Ruben Gomez (5-4) will go to the mound for the Giants.

Athletics Lose Pair To Drop Further Back

By The Associated Press

If there's something wrong with Mickey Mantle's swing, he ought to patent it. He's had only eight hits in his last six games—but six of them have been home runs.

The Mick pickled a pair Friday night, driving in the first four runs as the New York Yankees defeated the Cleveland Indians 6-5. It was a two-run, bases-loaded single by Bill Skowron that got the job done in the seventh, however, as Bob Turley became the first to win nine in the majors.

Second place Kansas City skidded 8½ games behind the Yankees in a 2-1 and 3-1 twi-night loss at Baltimore. Boston defeated Chicago 3-2 and Detroit belted Washington 11-2.

Connie Johnson won his second for the Orioles in the opener, while in the nightcap, Milt Pappas, a 19-year-old right-hander hampered by arm trouble recently, gained his second victory and first major league complete game with a four-hitter. He had a one-hit shutout for six. Ray Herbert was the loser.

Lou Berberet singled home a run in the sixth for the Red Sox, then set up the clincher with a triple ahead of Marty Keough's pinch-hit sacrifice fly in a two-run eighth. Chicago reliever Jerry Staley lost his fourth. Ike Delock won his second in relief.

Billy Hoeft, who hadn't beaten Washington since 1956, gained a 4-5 record with a four-hitter after losing four straight. Ossie Virgil, Detroit's first Negro, made his AL debut with a double in five trips and an errorless game at third base. Hal Griggs was the loser.

Maple Leafs Clip Columbus Jets 8-3

By The Associated Press

Montreal's one-time big margin at the top of the International League stood at only one game today, chiefly because the Toronto Maple Leafs have been on a winning streak while the Royals were losing their touch.

The Leafs chalked up their eighth victory in nine games Friday night with an 8-3 decision over the Columbus Jets. At the same time the Royals dropped a 10-6 game to the Richmond Virginians for their sixth setback in their last eight outings.

In other games Miami edged Rochester 1-0 and Buffalo and Havana played a 6-6 tie in a game in which the start was delayed by bad weather.

Taylor Fills Head Court Job at OSU

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Although Ohio State University's new basketball coach, Fred Taylor, is inheriting what appears to be a wealth of talent, he says there is still much recruiting to be done.

The 33-year-old native of Zanesville moved up from freshman basketball coaching chores Friday when he was approved by the university's board of trustees following the recommendations by a four-man screening committee, the athletic board and President Novice G. Fawcett.

Hunt to Continue

Although such high school standouts as Middletown's Jerry Lucas, Columbus East's Mel Nowell and Bridgeport's John Havlich have said they will enroll at Ohio State next fall, Taylor says his hunt for talent will continue.

He listed five high school all-star games he will attend during the next six weeks, all of them involving Ohio high school cagers. They will be held at Fort Wayne, Ind.; Louisville, Ky.; Middletown and Troy, Ohio, and Bowling Green, Ky.

Another scholastic star, who has been reported sought by at least 65 colleges, has Taylor's eye. He is 6 foot 9 Jack Ardon, who has broken practically all the records in his home state of New Jersey.

Taylor said OSU officials have heard the Buckeyes rank high with Ardon and he plans a visit to Columbus next week.

OSU Visit Slated

Taylor's selection follows somewhat of a tradition in picking Buckeye basketball coaches. Since 1912 all head coaches, with the exception of one, have come up through the OSU Athletic Department.

The lone exception was the late Harold G. Olsen, imported from Ripon (Wis.) in 1923. He served until 1946.

Taylor, who has never coached a varsity team, succeeds Floyd Stahl who resigned April 24.

Taylor played center on Ohio State basketball teams of 1948-50 He also played baseball for the Bucks for four years.

Gibson Takes First Feature

RICHWOOD — Todd Gibson of Richwood won his first feature of the season Friday night at the Richwood Speedway.

The local driver beat out Ron Van Vlerah and Dick Britton for the top spot. Dick Wright of Marion led most of the way in the feature run until he was forced from action by mechanical troubles on the last lap. The feature also was marred by a three-car pileup at the start but no one was injured. Paul Clark of Mansfield escaped serious injury when his car overturned near the midway point of the race.

The first race was won by Britton with Jim Reese second and Wright third. Wright had been leading the pack with Reese clinging to his bumper until Britton slipped through on the final lap for the win. The second heat race went to Dick Haines with Van Vlerah second and Clark third. Ed Kramer won the third race with James Smith and John Wyner following him in that order.

Reese came back to take the winners' handicap followed closely by Clark and Van Vlerah. The consolation race went to Decker with Truman Redenbaugh second and Gibson third.

$1 Million Offer Given To Robinson, Patterson

NEW YORK (AP) — A million dollars is a lot of money. And Floyd Patterson is just a man. So Sugar Ray Robinson is more than willing to listen to a million dollar offer to meet Patterson for the heavyweight boxing title.

The offer came Friday from Sy Weintraub, a television man who recently purchased the Sol Lesser Productions. Weintraub would stage the fight in the Los Angeles Coliseum sometime in September.

In a telegram to Robinson, Weintraub said he had made the same offer to Patterson. Neither the heavyweight champion nor his manager was available for comment.

Mays Moves Past Musial With Torrid .433 Mark

By The Associated Press

Holy smoke! Lookit Willie!

There's just one "Willie" in the majors—the San Francisco Giants' amazin' Willie Mays, who has whipped into the lead in the National League bat race at .433 with a .684 average in his last four games.

Nobody's been able to get Willie out in his last eight at-bats. He ran his consecutive hit streak to seven Friday night with his 14th home run and a pair of singles that just missed getting the job done for the Giants.

Braves Fall 4-3

One big inning gave Cincinnati a 5-4 victory over San Francisco, but the Giants stayed within .008 percentage points of first place Milwaukee, beaten 4-3 at Los Angeles.

Don Zimmer's leadoff home run in the ninth—the first ever off Milwaukee relief ace Don McMahon in the majors — gave it to the Dodgers, whose last place pitching staff cooled off the Braves' hot homer streak. In the Coliseum yet.

Mays took the bat lead from Stan Musial (now .420), who was 0-for-2 as his St. Louis Cardinals won their fourth in a row with a 3-1 decision over Philadelphia. The Chicago Cubs beat Pittsburgh 6-1.

4th Loss in 5 Games

The Giants took their fourth defeat in five games, all by one run, as the Reds socked Ray Monzant for his fourth loss in a five-run sixth. A single and two walks loaded the bases with two out. Don Hoak's single brought two runs home and Jerry Lynch then clinched it with a three-run homer, his fourth.

The Dodgers twice hustled from behind to tie the score against the Braves' starter, Bob Rush and Clem Labine won his second, pitching only the ninth after following starter Don Drysdale and Johnny Podres.

Right-hander Sam Jones took the major league strikeout lead at 65 by fanning 12 Phils, a one-game high for the NL season. He allowed seven hits, lost his shutout in the seventh when singles by Chico Fernandez and Solly Hemus followed his lone walk.

Right-hander Dick Drott won his third with a four-hitter for the Cubs as the Pirates lost their fourth in a row. He blanked the Bucs on two hits after a first-inning run. Vern Law lost it for a 5-4 record.

Parking Fees For OSU Grid Play Adopted

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State University football fans will have to pay for parking space near the stadium as well as for a seat at next season's games.

The added cost was approved Friday by OSU trustees. It will cost 50 cents to park on the soft surface areas and $1 on the hard. A $5 parking book will be sold for the six home games.

Ohio State President Novice G. Fawcett explained that the charge is necessary to meet the growing cost of controlling parking and traffic at football games.

The fees are expected to gross $25,000. The net income will go to the Athletic Department.

The trustees also approved demolition of the 60-year-old Armory. The building was termed beyond repair as a result of a fire May 17. The fire loss was estimated at $250,000.

Merit salary increases of 581 faculty members were given a boost when the trustees approved the 1958-59 budget, which included $522,108 for salary increases.

In other action the trustees:

Established the degree of master of city planning, to be awarded to students completing a new two-year graduate program in the School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture.

Awarded contracts totaling $1,820,824 for construction of Denney Hall, a five-floor classroom and office building.

Elisian Reinstated After '500' Pileup

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Ed Elisian, Oakland, Calif., driver who was accused of causing the 15-car pileup in the first lap of the 500-mile race May 30, was back in good standing today. The United States Auto Club directors said they couldn't prove an error of judgment.

Elisian, only driver who ever turned in a 148-mile-an-hour lap at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, was suspended by Duane Carter, USAC director of competition. The pileup resulted in the death of driver Pat O'Connor and injury of two other drivers.

$50 Fine Adopted To Curb 'Dusting'

CHICAGO (AP)—From now on if a pitcher intentionally tries to dust off a batter in the major leagues it will cost him $50.

That's the price tag on his first deliberate try.

If he continues, he will be ejected from the game and his case referred to the league president. The penalty of either another fine or suspension will be up to the judgment of the president.

Presidents Will Harridge of the American League and Warren Giles of the National enacted legislation in Chicago, Friday to curb intentional dusting. It will be to the umpire's discretion if such a pitch is deliberate or not.

Turley Wins 9th

Mantle Smacks 2 To Clip Tribe 6-5

NEW YORK (AP) — Southpaw Don Mossi, who goes against the New York Yankees this afternoon as the Cleveland Indians try for their first victory over the American League leaders, hopes the law of averages will be breaking in his favor.

Mossi, used mainly in relief, has made two starts this year and has lost both. Each of his four losses has occurred on a Saturday afternoon. He has won four games.

To Oppose Ford

His mound opponent will be Whitey Ford, another left-hander, who has a 6-2 record, including a 6-1 victory over the Indians in Cleveland May 25.

The Yankees have an 8-2 record against left-handers and one reason is that switch-hitting Mickey Mantle has an astronomical .471 average batting from the right side. He is hitting only .261 left-handed.

Mantle drove in four runs with two homers against southpaw Dick Tomanek as the Yankees won the opener of a four-game series, 6-5, Friday night. It was the Yankees' third straight victory over the Tribe.

The winner was Bob Turley, who became the first pitcher in the majors to win nine games this season. He has lost only one.

Bill Skowron's two-run single in the seventh inning was the clincher after Mantle's two homers had driven in the first four Yankee runs. It broke a 4-4 tie.

The Yankees led 1-0 after the first inning, on Mantle's first homer of the night, but the Indians bounced back with three runs in the second, two of them coming on a home run by Tomanek, his first in the majors.

Hits Second Homer

Mantle's second homer — with two men out and two on base in the fifth—gave the Yankees a 4-3 lead, but the Indians tied the score in the sixth with a run on a walk, an infield out and Preston Ward's single.

The Indians scored their last run in the ninth when Billy Harrell singled and went to third on a double by Larry Doby, who batted for Tomanek. Harrell scored and Bobby Avila reached first on a bum throw by shortstop Tony Kubek. Roger Maris drew a walk to load the bases. Turley got out of the jam as Minnie Minoso lined to the second baseman and Ward fouled out to end the rally.

The loss left Tomanek with a 1-2 record, both of his losses being to the Yankees.

Cleveland right - handers Ray Narleski and Jim (Mudcat) Grant are expected to oppose Johnny Kucks and Sal Maglie, a former Indian, in the doubleheader Sunday that ends the series.

Akins Pounds Martinez for Welter Crown

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Virgil (Honeybear) Akins, confident after his vicious bombing of Vince Martinez for the world welterweight title, is eager for a big-payday fight with former titleholder Carmen Basilio.

"Man, that fight would be ideal," Akins said when asked about a match with Basilio. His manager, Eddie Yawitz, echoed:

"We definitely want Basilio next either in St. Louis or Syracuse, wherever we can draw the best gate."

But Basilio, a spectator Friday night, said his plans are indefinite depending on whether he can get a third fight with Sugar Ray Robinson.

He admitted, though, he is thinking about returning to the 147-pound class if the money is right.

Truman Gibson, head of the International Boxing Club, was impressed with the brutal beating the 30-year-old hometown boy gave the handsome Paterson, N.J. stylist.

Martinez was down seven times officially before Referee Harry Kessler stopped it after 52 seconds of the fourth round with Vince flat on his back.

Kessler raised Akins' hand and didn't bother to count Martinez out.

YMCA Swimming Schedule Includes 'Tadpole' Classes

One of the highlights of the Marion YMCA's annual learn to swim campaign this year will be a "tadpole" instruction program for boys and girls in the 6 to 8 age group. This session has been scheduled for the week of June 16.

The program is designed to help youngsters overcome a fear of water and to give them some actual experience in deep water. Under the general direction of Jim McBride, physical director of the "Y," the classes are supervised by several instructors.

There are four classes, two for boys and two for girls, with a limit of 25 members for each class.

The overall learn to swim campaign gets under way Monday, in conjunction with a nationwide YMCA movement to offer service to the community without cost.

Courses will consist of three one - hour swim sessions, with youngsters 8 to 15 years of age eligible to participate. Boys in the 8-11 bracket will meet June 9, 11 and 13 at 10 a.m. The 11-15 boys will meet the same days at 11 a.m. Girls in the 8-11 division will meet June 10, 12 and 14 at 10 and 11-15 girls on the same days at 11, according to McBride.

Ford Trailing McMullin in Dallas Action

DALLAS (AP) — Youthful John McMullin leads the $25,000 Dallas Open into its final 36 holes—and the fellow in hottest pursuit may have done the most to put McMullin where he is today.

At the Western Open last weekend, Tommy Bolt, 39-year-old veteran from Paradise, Fla., gave McMullin, the freshman on the tour from Fair Oaks, Calif., a wedge. The gesture was made by Bolt after McMullin shot a poor round.

McMullin had a 6-under-par 64 in the first round of the Dallas Open and a 65 Friday for 129 and a one-stroke lead over Bolt. Then he observed that the wedge had a lot to do with his success.

"It's out of this world. I wouldn't take anything for it. It certainly has been worth more than one stroke to me," he declared.

Youth was in the saddle as the third round began. McMullin, 23, and Gary Player, the 22-year-old high winner from Johannesburg, South Africa, were among the top three—Player two strokes back of Bolt.

Tim Tam Bids For Big Prize

NEW YORK (AP)—Tim Tam answers the big question today in the Belmont Stakes, toughest of the Triple Crown series for 3-year-olds, and there's a growing belief he'll have his work cut out for him by an Irish colt named Cavan.

The question is whether the Calumet colt can become the ninth horse to win the Triple Crown.

Off the record, Cavan shouldn't worry Tim Tam or trainer Jimmy Jones too much as they attempt to add the mile and one half Belmont to their Kentucky Derby and Preakness victories.

Eight 3-year-olds, all that survived the rigors of racing from an original list of 132 horses nominated last Feb. 15 for the $100,000 added classic, were named to start.

With eight going in the 90th Belmont, the gross value would be $114,600, the winner netting $73,440. Mild, sunny weather was promised, assuring a fast track for the race to be seen nationally on TV with radio broadcast.

Tim Tam is an overwhelming favorite, an early odds line quoting him at 1 to 10.

Some support also will go to C. V. Whitney's Flamingo and the Wheatley Stable's Nasco.

Mrs. Anna Cannuli's Chance It Tony, Mrs. Charles Silvers' Page Seven, and the two Brooks Farm's Saferris—a late surprise—all were listed at odds of 50 to 1. Martins Rullah, owned by George Lewis, completes the field.

Legion Nine Plays Mansfield Tonight In Season Opener

Marion's American Legion Junior Baseball team will open its 1958 season tonight at Lincoln Park by playing host to the Mansfield Legion nine.

Game time is 8 p.m. It will be the only night home game of the season for Coach Marion Waits' Marion team. No admission is charged for the Legion games.

The Mansfield team draws from six Richland County schools. Waits said he doesn't feel the team is as strong as the Mansfield High School Tygers although some of those players are members of the squad.

Waits' starting pitcher tonight will be Tom Prichard of the Harding High School nine with Larry Ishida behind the plate. Also expected to see action will be two players from Marion Catholic, Dave Kelly and Chuck Lindsey, and one from Ridgedale, Joe Moore.

Other team members, all from Harding, are Vance Creviston, Pete Porietis, Phil Reid, Ken Coffae, Gerald Bosh, John Keller, George Kirk, Larry Ambrose, Harl Evans, Don Conkle and Bob Wilson.

The local team originally was scheduled to open the campaign last Sunday at Bucyrus but that game was rained out. The same two teams will play Sunday at 1 p.m. at Lincoln Park. Ambrose tentatively is slated to start on the mound Sunday.

Whirlpool's big second frame came on six hits, an error and a fielder's choice. A brace of safeties, three bobbles and another fielder's choice set up four more runs in the seventh.

Cryder and Salyer both had doubles. Conroy belted a triple.

Office of Village Mayor Is Low-Paying in Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — If you're looking for a high income job, then don't run for village mayor. The average village mayor makes less than $2 a day in salary.

That's the finding of a study by State Auditor James A. Rhodes. The extremes run from a $12,000 a year post in Indian Hill, a Cincinnati suburb, to $1 a year in Gates Mills, a Cleveland suburb.

Only 14 of the 600 villages included in the study pay more than $5,000 a year. Mayors of three villates get less than $10 a year and 126 others receive between $1,000 and $5,000.

Syracuse University's 1925-26 national basketball champions lost only one game out of 20. The Orange bowed to Penn State 37-31.

UAW Parley Set On Implementing No-Strike Policy

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union leadership called a meeting today of local union officials from Chrysler plants in the Detroit area to discuss enforcement of the union's no-strike policy.

The union completed a full week of operating without contracts at Chrysler, General Motors and Ford. Its 500,000 members at the big three are under orders to stay on the job and not provoke strikes.

But trouble flared Friday at Chrysler's Plymouth body and assembly plants here. The company shut down operations at both plants, idling a total of 5,400 workers on two shifts.

The company said two men who had been union stewards under the old contract set off a work stoppage after they were laid off for refusing work at assigned jobs. This resulted in a shutdown, the company said, idling 1,500 workers in the body plant and 1,200 in the assembly plant.

Theater Attractions

Following is a summary of the motion pictures that will be presented at theaters in Marion next week.

—Palace—

A much-honored motion picture, "Around the World in 80 Days," comes to Marion Thursday at the Palace Theater.

The Palace is able to show Mike Todd's spectacular through the use of a 35 mm reproduction.

Preceding "Around the World in 80 Days" will be an exciting twosome scheduled for Sunday through Tuesday.

On the twin bill are: Robert Mitchum, Gene Barry and Jacques Aubuchon in "Thunder Road" and Rory Calhoun, Gloria Grahame, Lloyd Bridges and Joanne Gilbert in "Ride Out for Revenge."

The moonshiners of the southeastern mountain area, descendants of Elizabethan Englishmen, believers in the divine right of every man to make his own whisky and sworn enemies of the Treasury Department revenue men — these are the heroes and villians of "Thunder Road" which costars, Keely Smith, Trevor Bardette, Sandra Knight and Jim Mitchum.

Filmed on location near Asheville, N.C., the melodrama deals with the modern aspects of a billion-dollar whisky war between moonshiners and "revenooers."

With a theme of hatred between white man and red man on the Great Plains, "Ride Out for Revenge," tells the story of the U.S. Army's attempt to move all of the Cheyennes from their ancestral hunting grounds in Oklahoma to Dakota some 90 years ago.

On stage Wednesday will be the Martha Douce Dance Studio review.

Heading the cast in "Around the World in 80 Days" are David Niven as the resourceful Phineas Fogg, Cantinflas as the brave Passepartout, Robert Newton as the bumbling Scotland Yard man, Mr. Fox, and Shirley MacLaine as Aouda, exotic Indian princess.

The charm of the picture, taken from Jules Verne's story, lies mainly in the hero, Fogg, the most punctual man in England, who takes a bet that he can go around the world in 80 days.

Set in 1872, Fogg's only chance for air travel was by balloon from France to England. In his travel against time he still finds time for tea at 4, a champagne toast in the Alps, rescuing an Indian princess and saving his servant, captured by Sioux Indians.

Spicing the picture are a vivacious musical score and 41 famous English and American stars who portray "cameo" parts.

—South Drive-In—

A bonus feature will be shown with the two regular movies at the South Drive-In tonight. It will be Jeff Chandler and Joan Crawford in "Female on the Beach." The two scheduled films are "3:10 to Yuma" and "Tarzan and the Lost Safari."

The hilarious army comedy, "Joe Butterfly," heads the attraction list for Sunday through Tuesday at this drive-in. The second feature is "Slaughter on 10th Avenue."

The cinemascope, color production of the adventures of American soldiers in Japan has a stellar cast which includes Audie Murphy, George Nader, Keenan Wynn, Keiko Shima, John Agar, Charles McGraw and Fred Clark; with Burgess Meredith as Joe Butterfly, the lovable con-man.

The story is that of a group of G.I.'s detailed to publish an Army magazine at the beginning of the American occupation who would never have succeeded in getting out their first issue without the connivance of a Japanese sharpie, Joe Butterfly.

The picture was produced and directed by the same team that gave theatergoers, "To Hell and Back."

Richard Egan, Jan Sterling, Dan Duryea and Julie Adams star in "Slaughter on 10th Avenue," the story of the men and women who fought to smash the mobsters and the lawless code of Manhattan's rough docks.

The double feature for Wednesday through Saturday combines the blood-feud tale of "Night Passage" with the heart-warming story of runaways on an "Escapade in Japan."

Audie Murphy and James Stewart fight side by side, on opposite sides, in the exciting outdoor and adventure film, "Night Passage." The color film also includes in the cast, Dan Duryea, Dianne Foster, Elaine Stewart, Brandon deWilde and Jay C. Flippen.

"Escapade in Japan," filmed in Japan, in color, tells the adventures of two runaway boys headed for Tokyo, which culminate in the reunion of the one boy's estranged parents. The parents are Cameron Mitchell and Teresa Wright. Jon Provost and Roger Nakagawa are the two youngsters set for adventure.

—North Drive-In—

A giant of a film, starring top stars in a first-rate story hits the North Drive-In screen Sunday through Tuesday.

The motion picture is "Giant." The stars are Elizabeth Taylor, Rock Hudson and James Dean.

The cinemascope, color production is taken from Edna Ferber's book by the same title and is the story of the "giant" state, Texas, and one of its giants, played by Hudson.

The hilarious Navy comedy, "Don't Go Near the Water" will split the sides of audiences at the North, Wednesday through Saturday.

Dealing with the members of a U.S. Navy public relations section based on a beautiful tropical island during World War II, "Don't Go Near the Water," stars Glenn Ford, Gia Scala, Earl Holliman, Anne Francis, Keenan Wynn, Fred Clark, Eva Gabor, Russ Tamblyn, Jeff Richards and Mickey Shaughnessy.

The picture is filmed in color and cinemascope.

ELIZABETH TAYLOR AND ROCK HUDSON play husband and wife in the motion picture version of Edna Ferber's great novel, "Giant" which plays at the North Drive-In Sunday through Tuesday. Because of the unusual length of the film, it will be shown just once nightly.

It is the dramatic, sensitive and searching story of a fabulous summer on the Riviera.

"Underwater" and "From Hell to Texas" will play on a double bill at the theater Wednesday through Saturday.

"Underwater" with Jane Russell, Gilbert Roland, Richard Egan and Lori Nelson, is set in the Caribbean and is the story of sunken treasure, treachery and love.

Don Murray and Diane Varsi head the cast for the film of the mighty West, "From Hell to Texas."

Based on a novel about a young, peace - loving man who tries in every way possible to avoid violence, the film has a supporting cast which includes Chill Wills, Dennis Hopper, John Larch, J. C. Flippen and R. G. Armstrong.

Presley Record Slows Activity at Workshop

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Employes of the Baptist Book Store, in a hurry to get to a religious workshop, scooped up a bunch of religious records that had just arrived.

At the workshop, they stacked them on a record player and sat back to listen.

Suddenly, they were all startled by a jumping Elvis Presley song. No one could figure out how the Presley record got into the religious stack.

Labor Heads Blast Attack On Harriman

Charge by Sen. Ives Against New York's Governor Is Refuted

NEW YORK (AP)—Two labor leaders Friday criticized an accusation that Gov. Averell Harriman's official conduct was influenced by friendship with a labor racketeer.

The charge, raised by Sen. Irving M. Ives (R-NY) Thursday night, "is an insult to us and to the enire labor movement," said Harry van Arsdale, president of the New York AFL Central Trades and Labor Council, and Louis Hollander, president of the state CIO.

Ives said that Harriman, a Democrat, vetoed a labor rackets bill passed by the Republican-controlled state legislature because "one of his closest pals is one of the leading racketeers in the United States."

Ives added: "I put two and two together. I can't prove it at all."

Van Arsdale and Hollander called a news conference to protest the Ives charge. They said organized labor obtained the veto because the bill had been rushed through without hearings.

The bill required union leaders to detail their finances. When he vetoed it, Harriman said the bill looked like a union-busting measure.

Harriman and the man—identified as Robert Bernard Baker, 46, a union organizer with a prison record—disclaimed any friendship. They said their acquaintance was limited to a single handshake.

The state correction department in Albany said Baker was given an indefinite term in the city penitentiary in 1934 for possessing a stench bomb and was sentenced to six months in 1935 for injuring public property.

Ives and Harriman are old political foes. Ives ran for governor against Harriman in 1954 and was defeated. Harriman is seeking reelection. Ives has announced that for health reasons he will not seek return to the Senate this fall.

The Senate Rackets Investigating Committee once termed Baker "a former New York waterfront head-knocker and tough, who occupies a position of trust near the Teamster throne" of union President James R. Hoffa.

Virtual Monopoly on Frozen Orange Juice Is Hit by Vanik

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Charles A. Vanik (D-Ohio) has this word for housewives: You are being bilked on the price of frozen orange juice.

Five or six large orange juice processors, Vanik said, buy up an orange crop early in the season in Florida — then through a virtual monopoly control the price.

In a statement inserted in the Congressional Record, Vanik said the price of a 6-ounce can of frozen orange juice that sold for 17 cents a year ago sells today for 33 cents.

"The fact is," Vanik said, "that the major producers of oranges and the processors of orange juice are one and the same.

"This year's orange crop damage is used as an alibi to justify bilking of the American public of millions of dollars.

"With reduced production, harvesting and processing, total orange juice sales have doubled in dollar volume.

"The result is that with crop failures, profits have doubled with the American consumer footing the bill."

Vanik said the Florida State Fruit Commission is supposed to police the orange industry. Actually, he said, the commission is used by the orange juice "cartel" to back its "ridiculously high prices for orange juice."

Printer Given 1-10 Years for Part in Fraud

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—A 1-to-10-year penitentiary sentence has been imposed on William Glaros, 44, owner of a printing company which produced materials used by John J. Tobin Jr. in a $250,000 swindle of American Associated Insurance Co. last year.

Glaros was convicted Friday by a jury of six men and six women of a charge of aiding and abetting embezzlement, specifically on one $56,000 claim, the largest of the many fake claims processed by Tobin while he was a $100-a-week claims adjustor for the company.

His attorneys indicated they would move for a new trial, and Glaros was allowed to continue free on $5,000 bond.

Tobin, ringleader of the fraud scheme, had testified that Glaros did not know the purpose to which letterheads, forms and fake newspaper clippings printed at the Glaros firm were put. But Paul E. Shade, 32, Tobin's chief confederate in the fraud, testified the printer was aware fictitious names were being used.

Tobin, Shade and Allen J. Swain, 29, a former attorney accused of aiding and abetting embezzlement by giving legal advice to Tobin, all pleaded guilty last month and are under 1-to-10-year sentence to Ohio Penitentiary.

Vincent P. Serman, 32, an attorney accused of aiding and abetting the swindle operation will go on trial June 16.

Galion Pair Back Following Visit to World Exposition

GALION—Believed to be Galion's first visitors to the World's Fair, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Newman found an impressive spectacle.

While native foods were served by the different countries, American food seemed to be the most popular to people from all over the world. No place could ice cream sodas be bought, but in the American buildings, the couple reported.

Their four-day visit at the fair was not tiring, the Newmans explained, as there were three different means of conveyance besides their feet. They were a special type of train with open cars and seats facing the grounds, a "rickshaw" propelled by a cyclist and a cable car that provided an air view.

The Galion visitors noticed that the Soviet building was very large, and heavy equipment, machines, combines and mechanical contrivences predominated to represent the progress which that country has made. Machinery even was a part of the outside decoration on the grass. Mr. Newman noticed.

He said the United States pavilion featured the leisure way of living in displays of swimming, golf, modern conveniences, electrical kitchen equipment, super markets and soda counters, with live models exhibiting clothes and modes.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman left Galion May 10, and flew to Brussels. They returned to Galion Wednesday night, June 4.

After their visit in Brussels, the Newmans spent a week in Paris. They also traveled in Holland and Germany, including the Rhine Valley, and completed their tour in Switzerland, spending some time in the mountain and lake regions.

Mr. Newman is chairman of the board of the Stratbury Manufacturing Co. of Galion.

2 Named to Boys State By Forest Legion Post

FOREST — Two Forest High School juniors have been chosen delegate and alternate for Boys State this year by the Lehman-Zimmerman Post of the American Legion.

Larry Thiel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thiel, was named delegate, and Robert Bash, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bash, was selected as an alternate.

Bliss Reports Fund Raising Getting Tough

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio Republicans are having a tough time collecting campaign contributions, Ohio GOP Chairman Ray Bliss said today.

Bliss blamed the situation on the recession and the dissatisfaction of what he called some ultra conservatives with state and national GOP leaders.

The chairman, here with some of the new Ohio GOP candidates for Congress, told a reporter that a lot of Ohio businessmen have reduced their contributions because of depressed conditions.

As for his problem with ultra conservatives Bliss said:

"In some degree these people are unhappy with some of the things that have been done in the way of legislation. It's just a fact.

"When your party is in power, you always have some who object to some of the phases of the administration."

Bliss declined to estimate the money goal of Ohio Republicans this year. But he said it has been harder to collect contributions than in any year since 1949, when he became chairman.

On the other hand, he talked optimistically about the chances of all GOP candidates for office in Ohio.

1953 Charges Against Two Dropped Here

Charges of violations of state liquor laws filed agaainst a Marion man and woman in 1953 have been dismissed in Marion Municipal Court on motion of John Stuckey, assistant city solicitor, and Paul G. Simpson, defense attorney.

Reba D. Darby, 44, who resided at 416 S. Prospect St. at the time of her arrest in 1953, was charged with the illegal sale of intoxicating beverages.

J. P. McGary, 45, of 178 Patten St., was charged with being the keeper of a place where intoxicating beverages were sold illegally. Both originally were arrested on alleged violations at the Moose Lodge at 152 N. Main St. on Aug. 9, 4953. They subsequently pleaded not guilty and the charges were dismissed for lack of sufficient evidence.

State liquor agents then filed new charges and Miss Darby and Mr. McGary were again arrested on Oct. 10, 1953. They again pleaded not guilty and their attorney on Oct. 15, 1953, filed a motion that the charges be dismissed because charges arising from the same alleged violation previously had been discharged for lack of evidence.

From the filing of the motion on Oct. 15, 1953, no further action was taken on the cases until the dismissal entries were filed Thursday.

Dickey To Receive Honorary Degree At OWU Exercise

Lester L. Dickey, former superintendent of Marion public schools, will be one of four educators awarded honorary degrees during commencement exercises at Ohio Wesleyan University Monday.

A 1925 graduate of the college, he now is superintendent of Hamilton public schools. The degree to be conferred on him is doctor of pedagogy.

Advance reservations indicate that a record number of alumni and parents will return to the university campus this weekend for the annual Alumni Day - Commencement program.

Approximately 400 graduating seniors and their parents and friends will attend the baccalaureate service at 10:30 a.m. Sunday in Gray Chapel. The speaker will be Dr. Herbert Welch, 96-year-old retired Bishop of the Methodist Church and fifth president of Ohio Wesleyan.

Commencement exercises will begin at 9:45 a.m. Monday on Selby Field. The graduating class will be addressed by President Arthur S. Flemming, who will leave the University sometime in July to join President Eisenhower's Cabinet as Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Harding Summer Music Program Will Start Monday

The summer music program in Marion public schools will get under way with the first high school band rehearsal Monday at 7 p.m., George Lane, band director, reported today.

At the first rehearsal, tryouts for new members and a majorette will take place. Uniforms also will be fitted.

Stardusters will meet in their first summer rehearsal Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. All high school band and orchestra members are invited to try out during that time, Mr. Lane said.

He also announced that final registrations for enrollment in the junior high and elementary music course must be made Monday at 8:30 a.m. in the Harding High School music room. No registrations will be accepted after that time.

Sightseers Barred as Tornado Dead Are Buried in Wisconsin

MENOMONIE, Wis. (AP)—This tornado stricken section began to bury its dead today behind the protection of road blocks thrown up to turn back the curious

The barricades went up Friday night on the order of Gov. Vernon Thomson who said he wanted to close off the area to morbid curiosity seekers who sought to explore the communities ravaged Wednesday night by three tornadoes that claimed 28 lives. Thomson said:

"Because restoration work cannot and must not be hampered, I have asked the Wisconsin Traffic Patrol to cooperate with the county sheriffs and National Guard in maintaining adequate and effective road blocks on all possible roads leading into the four-county area during the weekend."

Sightseers threatened for a time to swamp the area, but after the road blocks went up the traffic thinned to a trickle of authorized vehicles.

While recovery work went ahead, funeral services were scheduled today for three of the victims. Two of them were killed in Colfax, hardest hit community where 12 died.

Additional funerals will be held Sunday and Monday.

The casualty list was reduced to 28 Friday when authorities discovered that one boy was carried on the death list three times, under different identifications. At the same time, the latest victim died of injuries.

The Red Cross said 350 persons were injured. A total of 432 homes and farm buildings were destroyed and another 1,032 damaged. There was no official estimate of the dollar loss, but Gov. Thomson estimated it would run into millions.

An Air Force plane was ready to carry the 74-year-old West German leader and his party to Philadelphia, where officials prepared a big welcome.

Secretary of State Dulles arranged to see Heuss off at National Airport.

The West German president was here for three days.

He is scheduled to sail for Germany June 23.

Vandalism Reported

In the wake of vandalism reports from the construction site of the Marion Olympic Swimming Pool, Sheriff Glenn Obenour today cautioned parents to keep their children away from new construction areas. A number of tiles have been broken and fresh cement has been marred at the swimming pool site east of Marion on Rt. 95, the sheriff said.

Atlanta Man Is Held for Death Of Infant Son

ATLANTA (AP)—Police held an unemployed construction worker for murder today in the brutal killing of his 16-month-old son. The child was beaten and savagely bitten over his entire body.

Detective Lt. George Christian quoted Julon Campbell, 27, as saying he whipped his son "pretty bad and then got mad and bit him all over."

The officer said John Robert Campbell was bitten 50 to 60 times.

Campbell's explanation to police was that the child "wouldn't do anything."

Police asked the father why he bit the child.

"Because I couldn't hurt him bad enough with the belt, I reckon," Campbell replied.

The attack occurred Friday in the Campbell home at Roswell, 15 miles from Atlanta. Officers quoted the 18-year-old mother as saying she witnessed the beating and biting. She made no attempt to stop her husband.

"It was his child and he could beat it if he wanted to," the mother told police. "As for the biting, he bites anyone when he gets mad. He has bitten me several times."

Mrs. Campbell is expecting a second child.

The parents took John Robert to a physician following the attack. The doctor summoned the police. Patrolman Melton Cagle of Roswell drove at speeds of up to 100 m. p. h. in delivering the child to an Atlanta hospital.

John Robert died three hours after being admitted.

Police held Campbell at County Jail. A few cells away was Harold C. Summers, 30, an unemployed man from suburban East Point. Summers is charged with the murder of his 3-year-old son, Danny. The child died in a doctor's office after being beaten Thursday with a belt.

Miss Gast Plans To Attend Meeting Of Nurses League

Miss Margaret Gast, director of the School of Practical Nursing at Marion General Hospital, flies to Atlantic City today to attend a Sunday meeting of the council on practical nursing of the National League of Nursing and the biannual convention of the American Nurses Association, scheduled Monday through Friday.

The meeting will be open to the public, but only council members will have power to vote.

Miss Gast will attend the second affair, the five-day convention from June 9 to 13, as a representative of District 7 of the Ohio State Nurses Association.

The theme of the meeting is "The Professional Nurse—Practitioner and Citizen."

Approximately 10,000 nurses from throughout the country will be in attendance.

The playground workers include: Mrs. Fred Frey at Kilbourne; Miss Marilyn Scott at Crawford; Miss Jo Ann Miller at Kearsley; Richard Stranges, Bucyrus High School teacher, and Jack Winters, sharing duties at Harmon, and Miss Sherry Fisher serving as a substitute.

Dealers To Be Cited

Two veteran independent dealers of the Standard Oil Co. (Ohio) will be honored during the firm's dealer appreciation week, June 15-21.

This annual celebration is marked with the presentation by the company of bronze plaques to dealers completing first five years of service. Other dealers whose term of service is 10 years, 15 years, or any other multiple of five, will receive a date stud to be attached to the plaques.

Dealers from this area to be honored are Howard L. Barkley of near Marion, for 10 years of service, and Hugh V. Smith of near Marion, for five years.

Copies of Famous Paintings Shown

COLUMBUS — "Illuminations", an exhibition of color transparencies of 50 masterpieces of painting in their actual sizes, developed and presented by Life Magazine, is being shown at the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts, where it will remain throughout June.

The paintings were photographed in color and the negatives enlarged, the bigger ones by sections. These enlarged reproductions are stretched in front of semi - opaque plastic sheets to diffuse the back lighting. Color range and quality are captured to a remarkable degree; and many are far easier to see than in the conditions in which the originals are found.

The pictures range in time from Giotto's fresco of "The Betrayal" (1305) to Mondrain's "Composition" (1936). They include such familiar favorites as Gainsborough's "Blue Boy", Leonardo's "Mona Lisa" and Botticelli's "Birth of Venus". Most impressive of all is the entire ceiling of the Sistine Chapel, Michelangelo's greatest work. It is of necessity reduced to quarter-size, but even so it covers an overhead expanse 42 feet long.

The Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts, located on E. Broad St., at Washington Ave., is open, free to all, every afternoon and on Friday evenings.

Players Guild Presents Opening Performance

The Players Guild of Marion, formed last March, has given its first performance—a musical variety show staged at the Thursday night meeting of the Mount Olive Grange in Green Camp.

Nine members, under the direction of John Loyal, participated in the show. They were: Bruce Metcalf, Warren Burggraf, George Andres, Gary Bowman, James Iler, Miss Joyce Judy, Miss Mary Lou Rank, Miss Vella Mae Fignorello and Miss Claire Needham.

Arrangements for the show were made by Miss Becky Converse.

Bus Service Planned

KENTON — For the second year the Jaycees will sponsor transportation by bus to and from the municipal swimming pool for the children of Kenton this summer. The bus will make stops at 1, 3 and 5 p.m. at Westview, Ellis and Espy Schools every day except Sunday.

Congressman Says Capital's Police Escorts Too Hefty

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some 80 Washington policemen will traipse fearfully to the scales next week for a big test.

If they pass, they won't have to worry.

But a verdict of overweight will mean a de-beefing program to make the policemen look more like policemen and less like, well, kewpie dolls. That's how a congressman described them recently.

The policemen who'll take the weigh-in are membrs of Washington's motorcycle corps. One of their chief duties is escorting dignitaries and motorcades about the city.

While waiting at National Airport for Vice President Nixon's return from South America a few weeks ago, some of the motorcyle men fell under the gaze of Rep. Arthur Miller (R-Neb). Miller, a physician as well as a congressman, thought some of the policemen were too fat — 25 to 50 pounds too fat.

"Kewpie dolls with little pot bellies," Miller said.

Race Issue Closes Swimming Pools At St. Petersburg

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Both swimming facilities the city of St. Petersburg had maintained for white persons have been closed.

The beach near Municipal Pier was closed Thursday after eight Negroes swam there. The Spa Pool in the same area was closed Friday—for planned renovation, recreation director Jack Puryear said.

The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People said the action was a denial of the constitutional rights of all citizens of the city.

The U.S. Supreme Court ruled a year ago that St. Petersburg must open the beach and pool to Negroes but not until Thursday did Negroes follow up the ruling.

City Manager Ross Windom said the beach will remain closed until the City Council decides what action to take.

The city maintains a beach and a pool for Negroes.
